 Eighteen-year-old Mistral is an innocent abroad in the sophisticated Côte D'Azur, where princes and millionaires mingle in the casinos and sumptuous hotels while others plot to relieve them of their riches. Accompanied only by her embittered and domineering Aunt Emilie and kindly servant Jeanne, Mistral appears dressed all in grey like a ghost in the salons and ballrooms of Monte Carlo and sets Society's tongues wagging. It's not long before her waif-like beauty has men falling at the feet of Mademoiselle Fântôme – gentlemen such as Sir Robert Stanford. But on her sister's bewildering but strict instructions, she must not converse with any but the Russian Prince Nikolai, who's also keen to woo her, as is an opulent Indian Rajah...
 Something about Mistral touches Sir Robert's heart – and he cannot understand why Mistral appears afraid to be with him. Yet both of them crave love. Only if Mistral's innocent eyes are finally opened to the truth – that Aunt Emilie's motives are borne not of concern for her niece but of pure evil and greed – will she find her heart's desire...

This is a complete solution guide to all exercises from Chapters 1 to 20 in Rudin's Real and Complex Analysis. The features of this book are as follows: It covers all the 397 exercises from Chapters 1 to 20 with detailed and complete solutions. As a matter of fact, my solutions show every detail, every step and every theorem that I applied. There are 40 illustrations for explaining the mathematical concepts or ideas used behind the questions or theorems. Sections in each chapter are added so as to increase the readability of the exercises. Different colors are used frequently in order to highlight or explain problems, lemmas, remarks, main points/formulas involved, or show the steps of manipulation in some complicated proofs.

(ebook only) Necessary lemmas with proofs are provided because some questions require additional mathematical concepts which are not covered by Rudin. Many useful or relevant references are provided to some questions for your future research.

This book is meant for those people or artists, Sculptors, Painters, or Students studying human anatomy or Fine Art. As a Sculptor, Netra Khattri has made this book with the language of Art (Sculpture), how muscles attach to the human skeleton, and from where the muscle originates and inserts with muscle function. Initially, Netra Khattri thought of human muscles as sculptures, beginning to end with skeletons, partial muscled figures, and the origin and function of muscular structures. For example, the reader can look at the skeleton to see how the bones and muscles are constructed in this process of evolution and metamorphosis. Nevertheless, there are more interesting facts in human anatomy than here. The difference between this book shows the Ecorche sculpting process is finished anatomical references rather than, other anatomy book shows drawings of muscles attach with bone and structures of human anatomy.

The Big Diogenes Ray Darwin is a disciple of Jeffrey Lebowski and an ordained minister in the Church of the Latter Day Dude. With his two sidekicks John and Rog, he convinces retired British rock star, Alex Watt, to write a theme track to promote Dudeism and The Tao of the Dude as the faith best able to inspire the revolutionary change needed to save humanity from the global climate crisis. Accompanying them on back-up are Liz Watt, former London stage actor and wife of Alex; Little Diogenes a blind, anti-social dog; and The Pisser, AKA: Ape, Apeman, Apemanus, Manus, or Big Diogenes, a homeless, misanthropic philosopher of the Greek Cynic tradition. Will it end well? Possibly not. But there will be music, intoxication, and frank exchanges of views. Death of a Boomer Norman Wolfe is a successful real estate salesman in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, divorced, working too hard, and making too much money. One day the thought dawns on him to search for the great unrequited love of his adolescence. Flying across the continent from the west coast to the east, in effect travelling four hours into the future, he passes instead into a world where past, present, and future are all cast into doubt. Ah, Paradise An Alberta petroleum executive's vacation idyll is impacted by karma. The Idiot A dying man receives a lesson in Russian literature, when all he wanted was a smoke. Graveyard Shift An old man recalls his final shift as a youthful convenience store clerk. Easter, 2021 Contrasting Yeats' tribute to the heroic, self-sacrificing actions of ordinary citizens during the Irish rebellion of Easter, 1916; Easter, 2021 depicts the selfish and essentially self-destructive actions of modern day citizens during a time of global pandemic and climate crisis.

This edited collection explores how East Asia's painful history continues to haunt the relationships between its countries and peoples. Through a largely social-psychological and constructivist lens, the authors examine the ways in which historical memory and unmet identity needs generates mutual suspicion, xenophobic nationalism and tensions in the bilateral and trilateral relationships within the region. This text not only addresses some of the domestic drivers of Japanese, Chinese and South Korean foreign policy - and the implications of increasingly autocratic rule in all three countries - but also analyses the way in which new security mechanisms and processes advancing trust, confidence and reconciliation can replace those generating mistrust, antagonism and insecurity.

James J. O'Meara's The Homo and the Negro brings a "queer eye" to the overwhelmingly "homophobic" Far Right. In his title essay, O'Meara argues that the Far Right cannot effectively defend Western civilization unless it checks its premises about homosexuality and non-sexual forms of male bonding, which are undermined not just by liberals and feminists, but also by Judeo-Christian "family values" advocates. O'Meara also uses his theory to explain the stigmatization of Western high culture as "gay" and the worship of uncultured oafs as masculine ideals. Although O'Meara grants that the "gay rights" movement is largely subversive, he argues that homosexuals have traditionally played prominent roles in creating and conserving Western civilization. The Homo and the Negro collects 14 pieces on such topics as conservatism, homosexuality, race, fashion, Occupy Wall Street, Mad Men, The Gilmour Girls, The Untouchables, The Big Chill, They Live, popular music (Heavy Metal, Black Metal, New Age, Scott Walker), and such figures as Noel Coward, Oscar Wilde, and Humphrey Bogart. Shaped by an eccentric, post-WWII American upbringing, O'Meara draws upon "masculinist" writers like Hans Blüher, Alisdair Clarke, and Wulf Grimsson, as well as the Traditionalism of René Guénon, Julius Evola, and Alain Danielou.
