From the extraordinary Colombian French politician and activist Ingrid Betancourt, a stunning debut novel about freedom and fate set against the backdrop of Argentina's Dirty War and infused with magical realism, The Blue Line is a breathtaking story of love and betrayal by one of the world's most renowned writers and activists. Ingrid Betancourt, author of the New York Times bestselling memoir Even Silence Has an End, draws on history and personal experience in this deeply felt portrait of a woman coming of age as her country falls deeper and deeper into chaos. Buenos Aires, the 1970s. Julia inherits from her grandmother a gift, precious and burdensome. Sometimes visions appear before her eyes, mysterious and terrible apparitions from the future, seen from the perspective of others. From the age of five, Julia must intervene to prevent horrific events. In fact, as her grandmother tells her, it is her duty to do so—otherwise she will lose her gift. At fifteen, Julia falls in love with Theo, a handsome revolutionary four years her senior. Their lives are turned upside down when Juan Perón, the former president and military dictator, returns to Argentina. Confronted by the realities of military dictatorship, Julia and Theo become Montoneros sympathizers and radical idealists, equally fascinated by Jesus Christ and Che Guevara. Captured by death squadrons, they somehow manage to escape. . . . In this remarkable novel, Betancourt, an activist who spent more than six years held hostage by the FARC in the depths of Colombian jungle, returns to many of the themes of Even Silence Has an End. The Blue Line is a story centered on the consequences of oppression, collective subservience, and individual courage, and, most of all, the notion that belief in the future of humanity is an act of faith most beautiful and deserving.

This reference book is intended to help teachers, teacher administrators, policy makers and others deal with the important issue of religious diversity in Europe's schools. The religious dimension of intercultural education is an issue that affects all schools, whether they are religiously diverse or not, because their pupils live and will work in increasingly diverse societies. The book is the main outcome of the project 'The Challenge of intercultural education today: religious diversity and dialogue in Europe', developed by the Council of Europe between 2002 and 2005. It is in four parts: theoretical and conceptual basis for religious diversity and intercultural education; educational conditions and methodological approaches; religious diversity in schools in different settings; examples of current practice in some member states of the Council of Europe.

Immer wieder fällt Lehrern, Eltern und Nachhilfelehrern auf, dass Schüler besonders bei Lückentexten willkürlich Verbformen in unpassenden Zeiten einsetzen. Dabei folgt der Gebrauch der Zeitformen im Englischen, anders als im Deutschen, ganz strikten

Regeln, die meist mit Signalwörtern deutlich werden. Da diese aber nicht immer deutlich genug mit der jeweiligen Zeitform verknüpft werden, sind sie für die Schüler eben keine Signalwörter, die eine ganz bestimmte Zeit erfordern, sondern einfach nur Wörter im Text. Mit diesen Arbeitsblättern werden die englischen Zeitformen nun mit deutlichen Signalwörtern gelernt und abgespeichert. Zusätzlich gibt es am Ende Tabellen, in denen alle Zeitformen mit ihren jeweiligen Signalwörtern aufgelistet sind. Diese sollten ausgedruckt und gut sichtbar aufgehängt werden, so dass sie während des Lernprozesses stets zur Verfügung stehen.

The Wild Soccer Bunch, Book 5, Max the Golden Boot Sole Books

This book explores the religious dimension in intercultural education and states that religion plays a key role in value conflicts and worldview differences in schools in pluralistic societies. Religion is considered having a double role, both as the reason for deep differences in mental mapping and worldviews and as a contributor to intercultural understanding and dialogue. The book discusses the role religion has in education both at an institutional level, in the whole school society, and in Religious Education as a specific school subject. Underlying Western worldviews in subject curricula and subject didactics need to be revealed and contested to increase the benefit of education for all students. It argues for the need of a contextual understanding to help teaching and learning address religious diversity in schools.
