La vibración del Espíritu es un libro inspirador que nos acerca a nuestra realidad más profunda, a nuestro yo más íntimo, que nos toca el corazón y el alma, para recordarnos que, existe, en nosotros, un lugar de paz y plenitud. Es un libro sobre yoga, meditación, psicología, filosofía, pero sobre todo es un libro transformador que nos hace captar la vida en toda su inmensidad, comprender que todas las cosas son nosotros mismos, que somos seres creadoras, siendo la riqueza y la felicidad algo afín, alcanzable y realizable, a la realidad humana . El autor: Ignacio (Nacho) F. Delgado

Lead small groups through astounding growth with principles from the best-selling books How People Grow and Boundaries. No matter what need brings a group of people together—from marriage enrichment to divorce recovery, from grief recovery to spiritual formation—members are part of a small group because they want to grow. This book by psychologists Henry Cloud and John Townsend provides small-group leaders with valuable guidance and information on how they can help their groups to grow spiritually, emotionally, and relationally. With insights from their best-selling book How People Grow, Cloud and Townsend show how God’s plan for growth is made up of three key elements: grace plus truth plus time. When groups embrace those elements, they find God’s grace and forgiveness and learn how to handle their imperfections without shame as they model God’s love and support to one another. In addition to describing what makes small groups work, Leading Small Groups That Help People Grow explains the roles and responsibilities of both leaders and group members. Employing tenets from the book How People Grow, this book equips leaders to understand the ins and outs of how to promote growth, and using principles from their best-selling book Boundaries, they show how to identify and find solutions for common problems such as boredom, noncompliance, passivity, aggression, narcissism, spiritualization, over-neediness, over-giving, and nonstop talking.

La navegación por la vida, puede convertir a las personas en instruidos marinos. Saber dar soluciones en los momentos de mayor riesgo para el naufragio, es la prueba que te convierte en el hábil capitán de tu propio barco. Si toda esta aventura, queda argumentada y bien documentada, no hay duda que, sobrevivirá al inevitable, y definitivo naufragio por nuestra vida, como garantía para próximos navegadores.

Mis cartas fueron llegando a importantes archivos de vanguardia: los periódicos aceptaron la información, y fueron testigos de escarpados viajes por mi mente. Cientos de artículos dirigidos a la sección de "cartas al director" fueron viendo la luz por toda la geografía nacional. Así, periódicos como El País, La Vanguardia, La Verdad, Diario de León, Diario La Nueva España de Oviedo, La Voz de Galicia, Diario de Mallorca, Diario Bahía de Cádiz, Diario Palentino, Diario de Burgos, El Norte de Castilla, Heraldo de Aragón (Zaragoza), El Correo Español-El Pueblo Vasco, Diario Montañés de Santander, Diario Sur (Málaga, Marbella y Melilla). De esta manera, se convirtieron en 'notarios' de mis aventuras. La revista XL Semanal de gran tirada nacional, me convirtió en marinero de alto rango al haberme premiado en el apartado de carta de la semana, la enviada con el título: El Reloj de mi abuelo (dedicada con todo el cariño, a la muerte de mi padre) con un comentario de Lorenzo Silva (abogado y escritor); además de haberme publicado otras tantas de opinión. Este libro, se convierte por tanto, en un torrente variado, ante sentimientos e ideas de la vida. El Autor <http://jsreverte.com/>

Not everything believed as biblical truth is truly biblical. The authors debunk 12 commonly accepted beliefs that cause bondage rather than liberty. They explain how nuggets of truth become cornerstones for error when wrongly understood, and they help build solid scriptural foundations that produce emotional freedom. Now with discussion guide.

Making Small Groups Work Polity Bourdieu's Secret Admirer in the Caucasus is a gripping account of the developmental dynamics involved in the collapse of Soviet socialism. Fusing a narrative of human agency to his critical discussion of structural forces, Georgi M. Derluguian reconstructs from firsthand accounts the life story of Musa Shanib—who from a small town in the Caucasus grew to be a prominent leader in the Chechen revolution. In his examination of Shanib and his keen interest in the sociology of Pierre Bourdieu, Derluguian discerns how and why this dissident intellectual became a nationalist warlord. Exploring globalization, democratization, ethnic identity, and international terrorism, Derluguian contextualizes Shanib's personal trajectory from de-Stalinization through the nationalist rebellions of the 1990s, to the recent rise in Islamic militancy. He masterfully reveals not only how external economic and political forces affect the former Soviet republics but how those forces are in turn shaped by the individuals, institutions, ethnicities, and social networks that make up those societies. Drawing on the work of Charles Tilly, Immanuel Wallerstein, and, of course, Bourdieu, Derluguian's explanation of the recent ethnic wars and terrorist acts in Russia succeeds in illuminating the role of human agency in shaping history.

The imperative of happiness dictates the conduct and direction of our lives. There is no escape from the tyranny of positivity. But is happiness the supreme good that all of us should pursue? So says a new breed of so-called happiness experts, with positive psychologists, happiness economists and self-development gurus at the forefront. With the support of influential institutions and multinational corporations, these self-proclaimed experts now tell us what governmental policies to apply, what educational interventions to make and what changes we must undertake in order to lead more successful, more meaningful and healthier lives. With a healthy scepticism, this book documents the powerful social impact of the science and industry of happiness, arguing that the neoliberal alliance between psychologists, economists and self-development gurus has given rise to a new and oppressive form of government and control in which happiness has been woven into the very fabric of power.

Escrito por Cloud y Townsend, autores de Límites para nuestros hijos, este libro cuenta con consejos bíblicos y prácticos para todo cristiano. ¿Está tu vida sin control? ¿siente que la gente te utiliza? ¿Le es difícil decir que no? ¿Está desilusionado con Dios por falta de respuesta a tus oraciones? Establecer límites claros es esencial para obtener un estilo de vida sano y balanceado. Un límite es un línea de propiedad personal que marca las cosas de las que somos responsables. En otras palabras, límites es lo que define quiénes somos, o quiénes no somos. Los límites afectan diferentes aspectos de nuestras vidas: Los límites físicos nos ayudan a determinar quién nos puede tocar y bajo qué circunstancia. Los límites mentales nos dan la libertad de tener ideas y opiniones propias. Los límites emocionales nos ayudan a tratar con nuestras propias emociones y a librarnos de las emociones dañinas y manipuladoras de otros. Los límites espirituales nos ayudan a distinguir entre la voluntad de Dios y la nuestra, y nos dan temor de Dios. Los doctores Henry Cloud y John Townsend ofrecen respuestas bíblicas a preguntas difíciles, a la vez que nos muestran cómo poner límites sanos con nuestros padres, nuestros cónyuges, nuestros hijos, nuestros amigos, nuestros compañeros de trabajo, y hasta con nosotros mismos.

Si nos dejamos seducir por la unción y permitimos que nos atrape, nunca más seremos los mismos, veremos la gloria de Dios. El Milagro de Sunem: “Atraídos por la unción”, pretende romper el monopolio de la atracción secular y despertar en nuestro espíritu el hambre por la unción del Espíritu Santo, aquella que rompe cadenas y pudre los yugos y nos hace libres. Hoy más que nunca este mundo necesita no solo la proclamación del evangelio, sino también la demostración del poder de Dios; la iglesia debe ser el Eliseo de Dios en la Tierra: atractiva y poderosa que haga retroceder aun al mismo infierno. Si quieres algo más y deseas ver lo sobrenatural en tu vida, bienvenido a esta fascinante historia en la olvidada e insignificante ciudad de Sunem

Ernesto Buendía se ayuda de la técnica del desmayo emocional para sobrellevar las adversidades de la vida. Esta enseñanza le resulta fundamental para afrontar ese contexto de represión, indignidad y absoluta falta de horizontes que es su día a día. Sus circunstancias son su mayor enemigo. Y protegerse frente a ellas, la premisa básica para no caer en el oscuro pozo del sufrimiento. Todo parece estar bajo control hasta que una nueva presencia femenina pone en jaque mate su modus vivendi. La irrupción en escena de Eva resucita una legión de fantasmas del pasado aparentemente olvidados. A partir de ahí los acontecimientos se suceden, desde la más absoluta imprevisión, en un mundo mitad real, mitad imaginado. Epojé es una reflexión sobre la frustración, el miedo, la responsabilidad, la esperanza y el amor. Personajes como Juan Rulfo, Simone de Beauvoir, un enigmático profesor de filosofía y un elenco de mujeres, tan dispares entre sí como desconcertantes, configuran un puzle en el que, a medida que avanza la narración, las piezas van encajando de forma natural hasta ofrecer una visión de conjunto esclarecedora. Género:

"In the heart of this world, the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present. He does not abandon us, he does not leave us alone, for he has united himself definitively to our earth, and his love constantly impels us to find new ways forward. Praise be to him!" – Pope Francis, Laudato Si' In his second encyclical, Laudato Si': On the Care of Our Common Home, Pope Francis draws all Christians into a dialogue with every person on the planet about our common home. We as human beings are united by the concern for our planet, and every living thing that dwells on it, especially the poorest and most vulnerable. Pope Francis' letter joins the body of the Church's social and moral teaching, draws on the best scientific research, providing the foundation for "the ethical and spiritual itinerary that follows." Laudato Si' outlines: The current state of our "common home" The Gospel message as seen through creation The human causes of the ecological crisis Ecology and the common good Pope Francis' call to action for each of us Our Sunday Visitor has included discussion questions, making it perfect for individual or group study, leading all

Catholics and Christians into a deeper understanding of the importance of this teaching.

 "If Ms. Frizzle were a physics student of Stephen Hawking, she might have written THE UNIVERSE IN YOUR HAND, a wild tour through the reaches of time and space, from the interior of a proton to the Big Bang to the rough suburbs of a black hole. It's friendly, excitable, erudite, and cosmic." —Jordan Ellenberg, New York Times bestselling author of How Not To Be Wrong Quantum physics, black holes, string theory, the Big Bang, dark matter, dark energy, parallel universes: even if we are interested in these fundamental concepts of our world, their language is the language of math. Which means that despite our best intentions of finally grasping, say, Einstein's Theory of General Relativity, most of us are quickly brought up short by a snarl of nasty equations or an incomprehensible graph. Christophe Galfard's mission in life is to spread modern scientific ideas to the general public in entertaining ways. Using his considerable skills as a brilliant theoretical physicist and successful young adult author, The Universe in Your Hand employs the immediacy of simple, direct language to show us, not explain to us, the theories that underpin everything we know about our universe. To understand what happens to a dying star, we are asked to picture ourselves floating in space in front of it. To get acquainted with the quantum world, we are shrunk to the size of an atom and then taken on a journey. Employing everyday similes and metaphors, addressing the reader directly, and writing stories rather than equations renders these astoundingly complex ideas in an immediate and visceral way. Utterly captivating and entirely unique, The Universe in Your Hand will find its place among other classics in the field.

Immersed in a volume of poetry, Bluma Lennon is hit by a car while crossing the

'The healing has begun. It began when you picked up this book. The goal of these offerings is to assist the children of the earth in the redevelopment of their minds, bodies and spirits . . . Buried deep in the earth are precious diamonds. In order to get to them, however, we must dig and dig deep.' In ACTS OF FAITH, life coach Iyanla Vanzant offers a inspirational passage for each day of the year, particularly aimed at people of colour. Vanzant considers that there are four basic areas that create stress and imbalance for people: our relationship with ourselves, our relationship with the world, our relationship with each other and our relationship with money. This book addresses all four issues in turn thus providing a meditative and uplifting guide to living successfully.
