MICHAEL REINA

Caminantes del Arcoiris Freedom from Religion Foundation Offering inspiration to all, one man's philosophy of life and truth, considered one of the classics of our time.

The Challenge of Diversity Springer

From the winner of the first Lannan Prize for Cultural Freedom, a bitingly funny, kaleidoscopic vision of the first world through the eyes of the third Eduardo Galeano, author of the incomparable Memory of Fire Trilogy, combines a novelist's intensity, a poet's lyricism, a journalist's fearlessness, and the strong judgments of an engaged historian. Now his talents are richly displayed in Upside Down, an eloquent, passionate, sometimes hilarious exposé of our first-world privileges and assumptions. In a series of lesson plans and a "program of study" about our beleaguered planet, Galeano takes the reader on a wild trip through the global looking glass. From a master class in "The Impunity of Power" to a seminar on "The Sacred Car"--with tips along the way on "How to Resist Useless Vices" and a declaration of "The Right to Rave"-- he surveys a world unevenly divided between abundance and deprivation, carnival and torture, power and helplessness. We have accepted a reality we should reject, Galeano teaches us, one where machines are more precious than humans, people are hungry, poverty kills, and children toil from dark to dark. A work of fire and charm, Upside Down makes us see the world anew and even glimpse how it might be set right. "Galeano's outrage is tempered by intelligence, an ineradicable sense of humor, and hope." -Los Angeles Times, front page

Ma Josefa Segovia, comunicadora excepcional a través de su cercanía personal y de sus abundantes escritos, nos ha dejado páginas que testimonian su honda experiencia de fe y su labor como guía espiritual en el acompañamiento de varias generaciones. De las más de dieciocho mil cartas y de doscientos artículos, Aranzazu Aguado ha seleccionado textos representativos, siguiendo el ritmo del año litúrgico, para los que buscan un acercamiento a su espiritualidad; con ellos, Ma Josefa Segovia puede seguir mostrando su capacidad especial para ayudar a las personas a descubrir dentro de sí la posibilidad de creer, de comunicarse con Dios, de traerlo cercano a la vida.

Throughout his career, Eduardo Galeano has turned our understanding of history and reality on its head. Isabelle Allende said his works "invade the reader's mind, to persuade him or her to surrender to the charm of his writing and power of his idealism." Mirrors, Galeano's most ambitious project since Memory of Fire, is an unofficial history of the world seen through history's unseen, unheard, and forgotten. As Galeano notes: "Official history has it that Vasco Núñez Balboa was the first man to see, from a summit in Panama, the two oceans at once. Were the people who lived there blind??" Recalling the lives of artists, writers, gods, and visionaries, from the Garden of Eden to twenty-first-century New York, of the black slaves who built the White House and the women erased by men's fears, and told in hundreds of kaleidoscopic vignettes, Mirrors is a magic mosaic of our humanity.

NATIONAL BESTSELLER • In April 1992 a young man from a well-to-do family hitchhiked to Alaska and walked alone into the wilderness north of Mt. McKinley. Four months later, his decomposed body was found by a moose hunter. This is the unforgettable story of how Christopher Johnson McCandless came to die. "It may be nonfiction, but Into the Wild is a mystery of the highest order." —Entertainment Weekly McCandless had given $25,000 in savings to charity, abandoned his car and most of his possessions, burned all the cash in his wallet, and invented a new life for himself. Not long after, he was dead. Into the Wild is the mesmerizing, heartbreaking tale of an enigmatic young man who goes missing in the wild and whose story captured the world's attention. Immediately after graduating from college in 1991, McCandless had roamed through the West and Southwest on a vision quest like those made by his heroes Jack London and John Muir. In the Mojave Desert he abandoned his car, stripped it of its license plates, and burned all of his cash. He would give himself a new name, Alexander Supertramp, and, unencumbered by money and belongings, he would be free to wallow in the raw, unfiltered experiences that nature presented. Craving a blank spot on the map, McCandless simply threw the maps away. Leaving behind his desperate parents and sister, he vanished into the wild. Jon Krakauer constructs a clarifying prism through which he reassembles the disquieting facts of McCandless's short life. Admitting an interest that borders on obsession, he searches for the clues to the drives and desires that propelled McCandless. When McCandless's innocent mistakes turn out to be irreversible and fatal, he becomes the stuff of tabloid headlines and is dismissed for his naiveté, pretensions, and hubris. He is said to have had a death wish but wanting to die is a very different thing from being compelled to look over the edge. Krakauer brings McCandless's uncompromising pilgrimage out of the shadows, and the peril, adversity, and renunciation sought by this enigmatic young man are illuminated with a rare understanding—and not an ounce of sentimentality. Into the Wild is a tour de force. The power and luminosity of Jon Krakauer's storytelling blaze through every page.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • One million copies sold! "A deeply spiritual book [that] honors what is tough, smart and untamed in women."—The Washington Post Book World Book club pick for Emma Watson's Our Shared Shelf Within every woman there lives a powerful force, filled with good instincts, passionate creativity, and ageless knowing. She is the Wild Woman, who represents the instinctual nature of women. But she is an endangered species. For though the gifts of wildish nature belong to us at birth, society's attempt to "civilize" us into rigid roles has muffled the deep, life-giving messages of our own souls. In Women Who Run with the Wolves, Dr. Clarissa Pinkola Estés unfolds rich intercultural myths, fairy tales, folk tales, and stories, many from her own traditions, in order to help women reconnect with the fierce, healthy, visionary attributes of this instinctual nature. Through the stories and commentaries in this remarkable book, we retrieve, examine, love, and understand the Wild Woman, and hold her against our deep psyches as one who is both magic and medicine. Dr. Estés has created a new lexicon for describing the female psyche. Fertile and life-giving, it is a psychology of women in the truest sense, a knowing of the soul.

This book provides a comprehensive, updated syntheses of all the information available on Mar Chiquita, covering various aspects of the geography, geological history, biology and ecology of the site, as well as a detailed analysis of the current land-use patterns, environmental threats, and conservation issues. Mar Chiquita, located in the province of Cordoba, Argentina, is a protected wilderness area that includes South America's largest saline lake and wetland. It has a very rich bird biodiversity, including three of the six species of flamingos that exist in the world, and high numbers of intercontinental migratory shorebirds. For this reason, the area has been declared an International Site by the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands of International Importance, and also a Site of Hemispheric Importance by the Western Hemisphere Shorebird Reserves Network. Largely unknown until very recently, particularly in terms of the English literature, the site is rapidly gaining international visibility, not only in terms of scientific research, but also as site of interest for the nature lovers around the globe. Written in a language accessible to the non-specialists, the book focuses on integrating the dynamic, functional processes in the ecosystem, while at the same time providing the necessary descriptive information.

Accordingly, it is of interest to scientists from diverse disciplines interested in saline wetlands, as well as to students, managers, and the general public.

Over the past several years new constitutions have been promulgated in many Latin American countries. A notable feature of the new constitutional frameworks is the recognition of the multiethnic and pluricultural character of these Latin American societies and States. Without question this fact reflects the new weight that indigenous movements have gained in political processes in the region. The recognition of multiethnicity constitutes a significant break with the previous perspective based on homogeneity and assimilation. Although this recognition of diversity is indeed important, the real test and challenge shall be the full implementation of diversity through concrete policies and institutional reforms.

Cosmos Latinos

La presente colección funciona como una brújula que articula el conjunto de los debates llevados a cabo por FAIA, en el contexto de sus permanentes esquemas de diálogo con la comunidad internacional de pensadores con la que se integra. Además, pretende ofrecer al lector una respuesta didáctico-pedagógica, esto es, un insumo para la enseñanza y el aprendizaje de un nuevo pensamiento, crítico, liberacionista y de-colonial: un comienzo otro de la filosofía de la liberación, desde, en y con ella. En este Tomo I, se presentan métodos para una filosofía intercultural de la liberación comprendida, aquí, como praxis política descolonial para la emancipación de los pueblos; en rigor, se trata de un sentipensar actuante que pone en palabra las formas de resistencia, lucha y proyectos políticos liberacionistas, desde una perspectiva dialógico-participativa y crítica de los procesos de opresión, exclusión y expulsión.

The Prophet

Este libro está dedicado a todos los Pueblos y Ordenes Solares de la Tierra que han existido y siguen existiendo, con plena consciencia de que somos seres de luz. Así lo comprendieron los egipcios, celtas, fenicios, chinos, hindúes, grecos, mayas, aztecas, hopis, zulús, etc. De ahí su relación íntima y estrecha con el sol, la luna, las estrellas y demás seres del cosmos, y de este planeta en particular. Por más de 50 000 años los seres humanos se sintieron unidos a la naturaleza, concibiéndose como parte de una gran familia cósmica. Sabían que eran fuego, tierra, aire, agua. Entendían que Dios estaba expresado y manifestado en los miles de representaciones que existían en la vida. Tenían conciencia de que todo estaba unido e interrelacionado, y que el Gran Espíritu no podía estar separado de sí mismo, de su creación, de su manifestación en cada forma de vida. Hasta que surgió la idea de la separación y jerarquización de la vida, con el apareamiento de la fe dogmática, la secularización de las creencias, y las interpretaciones sectarias sobre la vida. Ahí surgió dios como un ente separado de la creación, un dios con cualidades y características sobrenaturales, un dios particular y exclusivo, un dios a imagen y semejanza solo del hombre, ni siquiera de la mujer. Cristo, Mahoma, Buda, Confucio, Lao Tse, que seguían el camino de la naturaleza, de lo creado, de lo sagrado, fueron utilizados por falsos seguidores para convertir sus pensamientos en jerarquías eclesiásticas, en sistemas ortodoxos de poder, en curias detentadoras de la única verdad. La sabiduría de los Maestros, terminó deformada tras un poder religioso, el cual luego se convertiría en un poder político y económico, como parte del Estado autoritario e inquisidor que se fue configurando; regente hasta nuestros días. Mas, después de 2000 años de oscuridad, regresa nuevamente la luz. Después de este aprendizaje violento y duro, regresamos nuevamente al camino del corazón. Reaprendemos otra vez, que no somos hijos del pecado de Adán y Eva, sino hijos del amor de la luz del Padre Sol y de la ternura nutritiva de la Madre Tierra. Lo fructífero de este período doloroso es que hoy renacemos en un nuevo estadio, con una conciencia más clara, con más humildad y respeto para quienes sostienen nuestra vida: la Madre Naturaleza y Cósmica (Dios). Esa ha sido la enseñanza de la vida y seguramente era necesario que pasáramos por este período, de conocer el lado más feo y terrible del ser humano para que renazcamos en equilibrio, conociendo los 2 lados de la vida. Es el tiempo del retorno a un nuevo y diferente estado de complementariedad, de correspondencia, de reciprocidad. Es un diferente retorno por "estar culturas", es decir, pueblos que cultivan la ciencia, el arte, la tecnología. Es el llamado a poner fin a la "civilización", al desarrollo, a la religión, a las iglesias, a los gurús, a la caridad, y toda forma de expresión del poder único, autárquico, autonómico, dominador y excluyente. Es el tiempo de la sincronía entre lo masculino y femenino, del respeto a toda forma de vida, de la aceptación y convivencia en paz entre todas las expresiones culturales de la humanidad. A eso apunta este libro, a retomar los grandes conocimientos de las grandes culturas del sol en la tierra, de aquellos pueblos que germinaron a un nivel superior y que debieron dejarse dormir, para regresar más fuertes y más añejos en conocimiento y sabiduría para guiar este Nuevo Tiempo. Son nuestros abuelos que regresan, son los hijos del sol que renacen una vez más. Somos nosotros, los abuelos, los Hijos del Sol que estamos otra vez aquí. Hemos regresado los Caminantes del Arcoiris, ¡Juyayay!.
