Robin, un adolescent timide ordinaire, vit une vie paisible entre sa passion pour la musique et les sorties avec sa meilleure amie intrépide. À part pour ses cauchemars réguliers, il trouve sa vie plus que banale. Jusqu'au jour où il se retrouve propulsé, avec son violon, dans le mystérieux monde de Minéra. Est-ce un cauchemar de plus ? Lui ? Le seul à pouvoir rétablir l'équilibre des Grands Mondes ? Pourquoi lui parle-t-on de pierres de pouvoir ? Robin n'arrive pas à y croire. Comment tout cela pourrait-il être vrai ? Pourtant, la créature féérique qui se présente à lui est bien réelle. Élnari est sa veilleuse et a été chargée de l'appeler sur Minéra afin de combattre Morion, le prêtre le plus puissant qui soit, afin de ramener la paix sur les Grands Mondes. Robin se retrouve alors embarqué dans une aventure épique, dans un monde où tout lui est inconnu.

About the book The essays; it may be remarked; deal somewhat extensively with the humour and satire that is not infrequently to be found in the works both of ancient and modern Hebrew writers; and; as this subject has hitherto attracted but little attention; I am not without hope that these pages may be of interest to the general reader.

Les psychologues et étudiants en psychologie qui s'initient à la pratique des méthodes projectives se posent très souvent des questions face à l'exercice de la cotation du Rorschach et du TAT : comment coter les réponses au Rorschach et au TAT et comprendre le sens de leur cotation ? Comment comprendre les processus psychiques en jeu et les traduire dans des éléments quantifiables ? Cet ouvrage propose, de façon très pédagogique et didactique, de les accompagner dans leur découverte de la cotation du Rorschach et du TAT grâce à des exercices et des entraînements de difficulté croissante.

The virtual renaissance of all things Cajun and Creole has captivated enthusiasts throughout America and invigorated the culture back home. Who, just fifteen years ago, could have predicted that this regional music would become so astonishingly popular throughout the nation and the world?

This new edition of a book first published in 1984 celebrates the music makers in the generation most responsible for the survival of Cajun music and zydeco and showcases many of the young performers who have emerged since them to give the music new spark. More than 100 color photographs, show them in their homes, on their front porches, and in their fields, as well as in performance at local clubs and dance halls and on festival stages. In interviews they speak directly about their lives, their music, and the vital tradition from which their rollicking music springs.

Many of the legendary performers featured here--Dewey Balfa, Clifton Chenier, Nathan Abshire, Dennis McGee, Canray Fontenot, Varise Connor, Octa Clark, Lula Landry, and Inez Catalon--are no longer alive. Others from the early days continue to perform--Bois-sec Ardoin, Michael Doucet, D. L. Menard, and Zachary Richard. Their grandeur, humor, and humility are precisely the qualities this book captures. Featured too are young musicians who are taking their place in the dance halls, on festival stages, and on the folk music circuit. Cajun and Creole music makers, both young and old, still play in the old ways, but as young musicians--such as Geno Delafosse and the French Rockin' Boogie, and Steve Riley and the Mamou Playboys-- experiment and enrich the tradition with new sounds of rock, country, rap, and funk, the music evolves and enlivens a whole new audience. Barry Jean Ancelet, a native French-speaking Cajun, is chair of the Department of Modern Languages and director of the Center for Acadian and Creole Folklore at the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Among his many books are Cajun Country and Cajun and Creole Folk Tales (both from the University Press of Mississippi). Elemore Morgan, Jr., is an artist and retired professor of visual art at University of Southwestern Louisiana.
