A creative and comprehensive collection of church activities to engage people of all ages across generations and cultures. From seasonal worship services to holiday-centered celebrations, each activity includes time for worship, fellowship, and faith development. Among the 30 celebrations are the liturgical days such as Epiphany and Maundy Thursday; traditional church events including

Volunteer Sunday and Homecoming; from Hallmark holidays like Valentine's and Grandparents Day; outreach-oriented programs for Earth Day and Bread for the World Sunday; and cross-cultural celebrations such as Dia de los Muertos and Kwanzaa. Features sidebars with even more holidays or themes to celebrate; and additional programs available for download online. Also included is a Dr. Suess-themed VBS! Church Programs & Celebrations for All Generations 28nineteen The Story is a study of the judges in Israel's history. God uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things. In Sunday School, kids get to insert themselves into a fun adventure mad-lib with the great adventurer, Clark Lewis. In Children's Worship, skit characters are transported into Clark Lewis' adventure story. Throughout the skit, kids are allowed to choose what happens next in true mad-lib style. It's Clark Lewis' story, but he wants you to be a part of his adventure! About This Series 28nineteen Curriculum provides Sunday School and Children's Worship materials that are Bible-centric, fun, and flexible. Following the Great Commission in

Matthew 28:19 these Bible lessons and worship experiences are designed to meet this mandate from Christ, making disciples and teaching them to obey His commands. Each series is undated and flexible, ideal for any size church and a range of kids' programs such as Sunday school, weeknight Bible study, children's church, or summer programs. No matter the size of your group, kids will learn stories from the Bible through fun activities, engaging stories, skits, kid-relevant music, and object lessons. By the end of each fun-filled series, children will come away with a deeper understanding of the Bible! Each series includes various components that customers can choose from, to bring the series to life in their own setting. Choose from box kits, leader guides, take home resources, discs with audio/visual materials and reproducible pages, and more! See following pages for more details. Strong expositional study. Zoom Children's Worship Program Kit Wipf and Stock Publishers This book is a thorough and well-	documented study on why churches need to develop effective men's ministries. Containing a wealth of vital information, this is a solid treatment of the biblical basis for male leadership in the church. The thrust of the book is that the development of men is the slow but sure way to build the church, for men either positively or negatively impact every aspect of church and family life. Jesus invested his life in a small group of men, and those men changed the world!

Life Cycle of a New Congregation
University of Michigan Library

This project is designed to assist the First Baptist Church of Graton to fill the needed service positions at the church that utilize the spiritual giftedness of the congregational members. They will be invited to take a series of tests to determine their spiritual gifts as necessary for serving the church. The members of the congregation who are willing to serve will be placed in a ninety-day trial period of service upon meeting the qualifications as determined by testing. The purpose of the project is to install the right person in the appropriate service ministry of the church.

Pastoring Through a Pandemic

Baker Books

Concerned to think intentionally about liturgy in Baptist life and thought, this book aims to address the practices of Christian worship in a theological light, examining how each brings individual Christian believers and communities of faith to a greater understanding and embodiment of the gospel. In this mode, worship becomes a seamless garment that forms disciples of Christ and opens out toward the world. In short, theology, worship, and mission all intersect in the liturgical life of the body of Christ. In addition to theological engagement with liturgical practices, Gathering Together links reflection to praxis by offering sample patterns as a guide for reenvisioning the shape of Baptist (and other free church) worship.

Gathering for Worship Randall House Publications Who is God? In Zoom, we begin to answer that question by ZOOMING in on the different names of God. The Bible gives God various names that all mean different things. Each name gives us a small clue to the big picture of who God is. Junior detectives search for clues to catch the Puzzler and learn more about their benefactor, the mysterious Detective Zoom. 28nineteen Curriculum provides Sunday School and Children's Worship materials that are Bible-centric, fun, and flexible. all we could do was pray” (pastoral journal entry, Thursday, April 2, 2020). Pastoring through a Pandemic captures, in detail, the first ninety days of the historic, once-in-a-generation, worldwide pandemic of 2020 as experienced by the pastor and people of the historic King Solomon Baptist Church of Vicksburg, Mississippi. The Pastor and people defied state and local ordinances to have in-person worship services at the height of the pandemic. Read of the harrowing tales of members, old and young, who sought answers for their own personal crises as they “sneaked to meet” while discovering a newfound strength and spirituality in the midst of their quiet defiance. See the four pillars of leadership in action from the pastor, who in the very midst of his personal battles with fatigue, fear, and nascent faith, kept a day-to-day journal of the church’s struggles and triumphs. Pastoring through a Pandemic will be studied for years as an example of how one faith community responded to the early days of the pandemic while also navigating its way through a historic time of political and social unrest. of grace and mercy for us all, especially those who serve on a church staff. He offers the care of the Shepherd, lets us know of God's trust in us and leaves us with a vision that is centered on the church's harmony with God's plan. I would place Staff Talk in rare company: alongside Henri Nouwen's Bread for the Journey and Eugene Peterson's Living the Message. (from the Foreword)

Wallace H. Kirby Author of Affirming The Ash Heap Do you ever find yourself searching for an appropriate prayer or devotion to open a staff meeting with? If so, Staff Talk is a comprehensive resource you'll return to again and again. A year's worth of brief meditations, all uniquely suited for building a sense of community and trust among your personnel, are in this extraordinary volume. Wil

Jackson draws on his extensive personal experience to share practical, effective insights in imaginative and engaging language. A wide variety of themes and topics are covered, including sections on building a covenant relationship, employing good management principles, and equipping laity for ministry within the body of believers. There's even material especially appropriate for retreat settings. Developing a cohesive and mutually supportive professional and volunteer staff is a great challenge. Jackson's book offers hope and direction for those who lead. Sam W. Dixon Jr. Executive Secretary, United Methodist Development Fund Wil Jackson knows the value of team building. In Staff Talk he shares nuggets of wisdom that are keys to developing a church staff into an effective and powerful team. Roger B. Dr. Carlton has produced an outstanding, one-of-a-kind work addressing the influence of the non-residential missionary/strategy coordinator's role in Southern Baptist missions. This well written, scholarly text examines the twentieth century global missiological currents that influenced the leadership of the International Mission Board, resulting in a new paradigm to assist in taking the gospel to the nations. Dr. Carlton writes as both a missiologist and a missionary. This work reveals the keen eye of a scholar, but also the heart of a practitioner who desires to see the multiplication of disciples, leaders, and churches across the globe. This text is a must-read for anyone longing to know more about the recent history of the International Mission Board and the theology and missiology behind the SC role and church planting movements.""

Bruce Carlton served in Asia from 1986 to 2007 as a church planter, Strategy

Presently, Carlton serves as the Associate Professor of Missions at Boyce College, a school of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, USA. Church Organization and Methods Baptists and Worship Churches over the past generations have been weakened by a failure to meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their communities. Many have adopted a narrow vision, focusing on only one aspect of ministry. But in today's environment of faith-based opportunities many Christians are eager to start reaching out to their world with both Good News and good works, and therefore they are searching for appropriate ways to integrate both into their ministry. In Churches That Make a Difference, best-selling author Ron Sider and his coauthors give those involved in community outreach a comprehensive resource for developing holistic ministry--a balance of evangelism and social outreach. Illustrations and helpful organizational tips detail the how-to's of an effective holistic ministry. Case studies that show how different churches across the United States reach out to their communities provide a variety of ideas and practical applications.

User-friendly tools are included as well for congregational studies, surveys, evaluations, and community assessments. The authors draw on extensive experience with church ministries and faith-based organizations as they share the life-changing vision and biblical mandate for living the whole gospel. Church leaders will be encouraged in their process of developing and maintaining a holistic ministry, and local churches will rediscover a passion for loving the whole person the way Jesus did.
