*Saving Crafter: a Gameknight999
Adventure* Andrews McMeel Publishing
Eebs isn't a very disciplined kitten. His mom warned him not to play in the forest, but he didn't listen. That's how he found himself in the Nether, a bizarre world inhabited by scary creatures. In the company of a ghost, almost cheerful witch, Eebs develops supernatural powers. Will this be enough to fight against Endernova's army, the Enderman, who want to rule over the Overworld? In order to save his friends, Eebs must become the champion of the Nether, as the prophecy of The Chosen One tells . . . Diary of a Hero (Book 3) CreateSpace Dan is playing Minecraft with his friends, like he always does, when a strange figure, white from head-to-toe, approaches him in the game and drops a book at his feet. Cautiously, Dan reads the book: it's an invitation, to a school. A school for only the very best Minecraft players in the country. It has to be a trick. It's probably just a joke from one of his friends. Dan is thinking just that, when there's a knock at the door. A strange woman, dressed in all white, has arrived at Dan's front door. She introduces herself to his bewildered mom and dad with her angelic voice. Her name is Ms. Fennerby and she's a teacher at Herobrine Middle School, an academy for children gifted in the game of Minecraft. Dan has been selected as one of the builders and designers of his generation. It all seems too good to be true. And maybe it is... Herobrine Middle School is a thrilling middle school adventure filled with real emotions, page-turning excitement and characters that will jump off the page and make you laugh. It is Spy Kids and Harry Potter and The Hunger Games, all set to the backdrop of the mysterious world of Minecraft. Perfect for readers age eight to fourteen with a story that will excite all lovers of Minecraft. Excerpt "DAAANNNNN! It's dinner time!" the voice echoed up the stairs. "I'll be right down!" Dan yelled back. "I've just got to save the world!" Dan's mom, who was making a racket in the kitchen that made Dan think she was throwing every pot on the ground, didn't respond. That was okay. Dan didn't want to have to explain anyways. He was saving the world. Well... a world. The Minecraft world that he and a couple friends had been working on for over a year. They had magnificent houses and had built huge statues of their avatars in the game. Dan's pride and joy was built on the server too: The Cow Cannon 2000. The Cow Cannon 2000 did... well it did exactly what you would expect it to. It fired cows at blinding speed into the far away expanses of Minecraft. It fired them so far that Dan and his friends had never found any remains of the cows or the mine carts that they were fired in. The best part is that the machine worked automatically. It lured cows to the machine and then fired them off as soon as they got close enough. Dan was incredibly proud of it. A work of art, he told himself. And, really, everything had been perfect in that huge-housed, massive-stated, cow-raining world, until the griefers had shown up. Somehow, a bunch of older kids had found the server and at first it was fine. They built their own stuff. That was fine. But soon they were bored of that and started destroying anything and everything they could find. Dan had urged his friends to just not react. The griefers would get bored, he thought, and leave them alone. But they didn't get bored. So, it was time to take more drastic measures. The griefers' next target was Platinum Plateau where Dan's friends' houses were built, along with the Cow Cannon 2000. Dan wasn't going to let the griefers anywhere near it. He had spent the last week building a series of "secret" entrances to the plateau via mine cart. The idea was that the griefers would find the "secret" entrances and not be able to resist riding the mine carts into the centre of the plateau to surprise Dan and friends. But little did they know that the mine cart would take them right to the Cow Cannon 2000, and before they knew it, BAM! They'd be taking a free flight, courtesy of Dan airlines. What are you waiting for? Get reading!

Introducing an unofficial Minecraft-fan adventure inspired by the bestselling game! What if Minecraft came into real life? What if the Minecraft characters that you know and love popped into your house?! "This is the story of how I accidentally broke Minecraft (it wasn't really my fault) and the Minecraft characters came into the world, our world, ma-freakin' planet Earth! You heard me right. Minecraft came into real life! Let me put that another way: Minecraft came into MY ROOM! When Minecraft first decided to appear in my room, things were horrible. You'd expect things to be good, but if you think about it, how do you explain to your parents your new pet pig and your new best friend, Steve? How do you explain to your parents that the reason your room is half-missing is because Steve needed to chop it down block by block so he could make a crafting table. How do you explain these things???" "Minecraft In Real Life" is an action-packed, charming novel featuring a nine-year-old girl and her friend Henry as they embark on real life adventures with Steve, from the Minecraft game. It's a fantastic story with a strong theme of overcoming bullying and being yourself no matter what anyone else thinks. Great for kids ages 7-13.

It was a living nightmare. Villagers were dying every single day and it wasn't just due to the new species, the Shulker. Disease, starvation and hangings were also a huge part of it. Everyone was dying and the worst part was that barely enough people were being born. The villagers were on the verge of extinction! Worst of all, nobody cared. All hope was lost and despair had officially taken over the cities and the towns of the Minecraft Overworld. Just one wrong move or one small mistake could easily cost you your life. However, maybe it could change. Just maybe.... Read now to find out what fate awaits Minecraft as the Shulker emerges. STEVI AND HENRY are at it again in this Minecraft-fan adventure inspired by the bestselling game! Minecraft comes into real life again. But this time it brings with it the most scary villain in all of Minecraft:

Herobrine. When Minecraft comes to Earth, all of the mobs come to Earth. The bad ones--like creepers, zombies, spiders, skeletons and more! And the good mobs--like pigs and llamas and sheep. Problem is, Herobrine is so powerful he can mind-control the evil mobs and the GOOD mobs. He can turn good pigs evil. And he can mind-control humans, even your parents. Which means Stevi and Henry don't know whom to trust as long as Herobrine is alive. Stevi and Henry are only ten-years-old, but they get swept away in this adventure and fly to South America in a Flying Machine where they must battle Herobrine. Or die trying. Since this story is about Herobrine, it's scary. Maybe the scariest Minecraft story you've ever read. So strap in for the ride, if you dare. HEROBRINE IN REAL LIFE is a fun and fast-paced adventure story for kids ages 7-12. It ties into Minecraft and is nearly impossible for kids to put down. More than that, it emphasizes the themes of friendship and self-sacrifice. Your kids will love it.
