This book places emphasis on the various days that are highlighted in the Christian year, as well as other occasions such as Mother's and Father's Day, baptism, New Year's Day, and Women's and Men's Day, and the church anniversary. There are eighty-seven short messages that can be used as a resource or as a seed for developing sermons, speeches, and Bible studies. Much study, research, and prayer has gone into these sermons. The book is a celebration of the 200th anniversary of Clayton Baptist Church, Clayton, Georgia, which was founded on August 14, 1819. The church is older than its county. The Cherokee populated this area of Northeast Georgia, the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. The first pastor was a missionary to the tribe. The church epitomizes the faith of our fathers, living still. This publication is our humble effort to record the struggles and victories in the founding and growth of our church and to preserve the heart, soul, and mind of a determined and courageous people whose abiding faith in an eternal world to come enabled them to build a beloved church that would promote taking the good news to the uttermost parts of the world. Today, we can almost hear the encouraging whispers of our forefathers, who are part of our forever family.

The Services in Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Founding of the Old First Presbyterian Church in the City of New York Rowman & Littlefield

"The bitter separation of Ukraine's Orthodox churches is a microcosm of its societal strife. From 1917 onward, church leaders failed to agree on the church's mission in the twentieth century. The core issues of dispute were establishing independence from the Russian church and adopting Ukrainian as the language of worship. Decades of polemical exchanges and public statements by leaders of the separated churches contributed to the formation of their distinct identities and sharpened the friction amongst their respective supporters. In The Orthodox Church in Ukraine, Nicholas Denysenko provides a balanced and comprehensive analysis of this history from the early twentieth century to the present. Based on extensive archival research, Denysenko's study examines the dynamics of church and state that complicate attempts to restore an authentic Ukrainian religious identity in the contemporary Orthodox churches. An enhanced understanding of these separate identities and how they were forged could prove to be an important tool for resolving contemporary religious differences and revising ecclesial policies. This important study will be of interest to historians of the church, specialists of former Soviet countries, and general readers interested in the history of the Orthodox Church"-- Publisher's website.

Celebrating Your Church

Anniversary Legare Street Press

The pastor's anniversary celebration is a very important event in the life of the church. The word of God that is preached in honor of the man of God, should encourage, equip and uplift the preacher. Here are 8 different sermons that will assist the friend of the preacher trying to encourage their brother on his special day.

Speech delivered at the seventh anniversary of the Auxiliary Bible Society, held at the Guildhall, Leicester Sagwan Press

"Church congregations describe themselves in many ways, including "Body of Christ," "Church," "Family of God," "Christians," and even "Team." Yet congregations rarely, if ever, refer to themselves in terms of the "Kingdom of God," the central image used by Jesus to frame his entire life and ministry. This short book considers what might happen if the pastor and members of a local congregation began to think of themselves as being "the exhibition of the kingdom of God to the world." Drawing on Scripture, contemporary Christian writers, and 37 years of pastoral ministry, the author challenges pastors, teachers, and church leaders to re-imagine the local church through the kingdom-focused eyes of Jesus." -- from the back cover.

The Commemoration of Seventy-five Years, Christ Church, Detroit Legare Street Press

Excerpt from The Semi-Centennial Celebration of the Park Street Church and Society: Held on the Lord's Day, February 27, 1859, With the Festival on the Day Following The pastors of Sister churches in the city of Boston, and other distinguished gentlemen between whom and the church there had existed any special bonds of alliance, were invited to be present through such parts of the celebration as their engagements would permit them to honor. Aged members of the church, and those most familiar with its early history, were solicited to furnish their reminiscences of the past; and those who had been connected with the choir in former years were invited to be present and lend their voices in the service of song. It was also resolved that a sketch of the proceedings should be preserved in a Memorial Volume, for the use of the present members of the church, and of those who should come after them.
