The Breaking News Remedia Publications

Pre- and in-service teachers turn to this book for a comprehensive, well-grounded look at theory and research, balanced with a practical approach to reading assessment, diagnosis, and remediation that includes 46 sample lessons covering virtually every major skill or strategy. The lessons are described in an easy-to-follow, step-by-step manner, and the emphasis is on strategies that teachers can use independently for developing skills in word recognition, vocabulary, comprehension, reading in the content areas, writing, spelling, and studying. This new Fifth Edition of Assessing and Correcting Reading and Writing Difficulties includes coverage of the critical areas of Response to Intervention and the impact of the Common Core State Standards.

Starting Out Right Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

Whose eye can it be? Here's a hint, Hen--it doesn't belong to that wily Fox!

An ABC Adventure Turtleback Books

The Eighth Edition of this authoritative, best-selling resource from distinguished author Tom Gunning gives aspiring and practicing teachers the help they need to become highly effective teachers--so that their students become proficient readers and writers well on their way to preparing for college and careers. Drawing on landmark research that focuses on highly effective practices, such as setting goals, monitoring progress, and teaching strategies, Gunning's Teaching Literacy Strategies for All Students is packed with step-by-step guidance for teaching reading and writing, including 30 sample lessons that cover virtually every major literacy skill and strategy, incorporating the key elements of effective assessment and instruction. The book emphasizes how to adapt instruction for struggling readers and writers, English language learners, and special needs students; stresses effective steps teachers can use to implement Response to Intervention; and familiarizes teachers with the reading and writing requirements stemming from the widely-adopted Common Core State Standards.

A Dozen Dogs Random House Books for Young Readers

A little girl builds a "truly great thing" out of junk. Her friend Stanley is nowhere to be found. But who is Stanley anyway? What a mystery! Until the great thing is almost complete, that is. Then, it's playtime, and there's just no stopping Stanley.

Pyramid of Behavior Interventions Making Words

Get subject reviews by domain, analyses of question types, a vocabulary list, and two full-length practice tests

Jolly Phonics Wall Frieze Roaring Brook Press

Explores the state of the "academic achievement gap" that exists in U.S. public schools, particularly among poor and minority students, and argues that the mindset that achievement gaps are inevitable are no longer tolerable. Explores ways to close the achievement gap via real-world case studies where principals and educators have adopted new mindsets for education.

Sleepy Dog Megan Tingley Books

An illustrated alphabet book specifically designed for early learners. It serves as an introduction to letter, phonics, object and color recognition.

SIPPS Simon and Schuster

An updated test-prep study guide on California's RICA (Reading Instruction Competence Assessment) including two model practice exams. California's Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA) test ensures that all candidates for Multiple Subject Teaching Credentials (meaning elementary school teachers) and Education Specialist Instruction Credentials (meaning special education teachers for all grades) possess the necessary knowledge and skills to effectively teach reading to students. All would-be California elementary school teachers and all would-be California special education teachers must pass the RICA. 13,000 exams are administered every academic year. This 3rd Edition includes subject review material for all five RICA domains and two model practice tests.

CliffsTestPrep RICA Hyperion

A story designed to teach the alphabet and identify various animals.

Crazy ABC Random House Books for Young Readers

M is for monkey...Read along with George from A to Z! This condensed version of the classic Curious George Learns the Alphabet is a delightful way for little ones to familiarize themselves with the alphabet—featuring colorful, inspired art by H.A. Rey that incorporates letter shapes into the illustrations. With the help of the adventurous and much-loved monkey, preschoolers will be well on their way to discovering the wonder of words.

Solution Tree Press

When devastating news rattles a young girl's community, her normally attentive parents and neighbors are suddenly exhausted and distracted. At school, her teacher tells the class to look for the helpers—the good people working to make things better in big and small ways. She wants more than anything to help in a BIG way, but maybe she can start with one small act of kindness instead . . . and then another, and another. Small things can compound, after all, to make a world of difference. The Breaking News by Sarah Lynne Reul touches on themes of community, resilience, and optimism with an authenticity that will resonate with readers young and old.

Leaders of Learning Dial Books

Raggedy Ann and her doll friends are in search of objects for every letter of the alphabet in this delightful alphabet word book with lots of flaps. Full color.

Making Big Words, Grades 3 - 6 Solution Tree Press

Includes seven sections that can be put up individually. They can be a continuous strip around the wall or a block like a giant poster. Show all the letter sounds of English, not just the alphabet.

All the Letters Pearson Education

The sequel to Pyramid Response to Intervention advocates that a successful RTI model begins by asking the right questions to create a fundamentally effective learning environment for every student. RTI is not a series of implementation steps, but rather a way of thinking. Understand why bureaucratic, paperwork-heavy, compliance-oriented, test-score-driven approaches fail. Then learn how to create a focused RTI model that works.
