The School Principal Gallic Books
In a desperate attempt to escape destruction decades earlier, humankind was forced underground, into the depths of the earth, creating a new society called the Tri-Realms. 17-year-old Adele, a member of the middle-class moon dwellers, is unjustly sentenced to life in prison deep underground. When a war breaks out within the Tri-Realms, Adele must escape from prison and seek to uncover her parents' true past, armed with only a wicked roundhouse kick and two fists that have been well-trained for combat by her father.

The immense popularity of
Dr. Crement's
first book,
Ahole No
More, has led him to write a sequel on the subject,
Aholes Forever. In
this new book,
Dr. Crement
examines those sad
cases in which the disease of assholism has become so severe that there is seemingly no
cure for it.
These are people who have chosen
to be assholes
forever. Dr.
Crement
laments that even though the cure for assholism is now well known -- thanks to Ahole No More -- there are people who refuse to recognize their chronic assholism as a disease and seek help. Dr. Crement lists the types of people and groups most prone to being assholes forever, documenting the tricks they use to take advantage of everyone else -- and explains what to do to spot 'em and to stop 'em.

Motion and

Time Study
 Enthea Press
 It is 1919 and Elizabeth Hughes, the eleven-year-old daughter of America's most-distinguished jurist and politician, Charles Evans Hughes, has been diagnosed with juvenile diabetes. It is essentially a death sentence. The only accepted form of treatment - starvation - whittles her down to forty-five pounds skin and bones. Miles away, Canadian researchers Frederick Banting and Charles Best manage to identify and purify insulin from animal pancreases - a miracle soon marred by scientific jealousy, intense business competition and fistfights. In a race against time and a ravaging disease, Elizabeth becomes one of the first diabetics to receive insulin injections - all while its discoverers and a little known pharmaceutical company struggle to make it available to the rest of the world. Relive the heartwarming true story of the discovery of insulin as it's never been told before.

Written with authentic detail and suspense, and featuring walk-ons by William Howard Taft, Woodrow Wilson, and Eli Lilly himself, among many others.

Don't Cry Iran

Has your life been a failure? Let's make your death a success. With the twenty-first century just a distant memory and the world in environmental chaos, many people have lost the will to live. And business is brisk at The Suicide Shop. Run by the Tuvache family for generations, the shop offers an amazing variety of ways to end it all, with something to fit every budget. The Tuvaches go mournfully about their business, taking pride in the morbid service they provide. Until the youngest member of the family threatens to destroy their contented misery by confronting them with something they've never encountered before: a love of life.

The Suicide Shop

The good Dr. X. Crement continues to wage his battle against the creeping tide of assholism. Having studied

assholes and their behavior all of his life, he is now ready to make his greatest revelation of all: that the spread of assholeism during the last century has been orchestrated as part of a	secret, international conspiracy! Until now, we have believed that the problems of society could be blamed on poverty, ignorance, and exploitation. But we were	wrong. These problems have all been engendered by well-placed assholes who have kept society stirred up and confused. Assholes Forever Assholes Forever Enthea Press
