Angela González, Lala, was born in Medellín, Colombia. Since she was little, she remembers having a very particular interest for drawing and illustrating. Lala studied Graphic Design, and then drawing and oil painting. Lala's talent and perseverance have enabled her to work in the fields of illustration and art, where she has captured a colorful, magical and Naive art movement style, playing with her images to represent the most beautiful scenes of her own fairytales. Colombia has always been Lala's source of inspiration, its culture, folklore, landscapes, and flowers are reflected in her work, a country is definitely for her a wonderland.
