The key to successful student writing is effective teaching and scaffolding before and during the writing process. In this powerful book, veteran teacher Mary Sullivan provides explicit lessons that demonstrate what effective writing looks like. Students apply these writing criteria to short, focused pieces, which Sullivan responds to before the final draft is submitted. It's this immediate feedback with the expectation of revision that really moves students ahead as writers. Sullivan annotates her responses, giving you insight into her thinking, and then she shares the resulting revision. Wow! You'll be inspired by the results, and you'll have just the tools you need to use this approach successfully in your own classroom. For use with Grades 5 & Up.

What would you be 5 years from now? If you were to look in your future, what would your life be? Is it looking good? Are you proud of what you have accomplished? You are probably in a relationship and can't be any happier! But let's be real. You can't see the future. What you can do is to feel grateful and treasure the things that are happening now. You can do that by journaling daily. It takes less than 3 minutes per day, but the impact is HUGE! This Journal Notebook will help you make that easy. It is not the typical kind where you feel like writing down becomes a chore. You would love this Journal because: It consists of 365 days worth of pages, and on every page is 5 spaces to write once per year. With this format, you can see your entry on January 1 five years in a row, all in one glance. See what you were thinking in past years and how your life changed a lot in 5 years! Months and Days are Dated so you don't have to. This will make it easier for you to go directly into writing your daily entry without taking extra time to write the date. It's always amazing to have a Physical copy of things that you write into. It makes it feel real, and by writing with pen and paper, you appreciate it more. There's more than a single line for each entry, so you can write a small paragraph, rather than just a single short line. The way it is set up, you can begin on any date (basically you just fill in the blanks after 20__ It helps you be organized with your memories and experiences. Instead of just remembering it on your mind, seeing a written experience can make you instantly happy! This journal is a perfect way of being able to do that without it becoming a chore. You just write a few lines about your day or something exciting that happened or some milestone you experienced.
