Natural Law in the Spiritual World is Henry Drummond's attempt to reconcile the scientific laws of physics, chemistry and biology with the spiritual law of the divine God. For the author, law was divided in two fundamental parts: the first is natural law, which encompasses the sciences, from our understanding of the universe to forces such as gravity, and the composition of living organisms. The second law is spiritual law, which spans the influence of God as the creator of the universe, and His effects upon mankind as a species capable of recognizing the divine.

Communicating ideas with profound depth, Henry Drummond ranges his discussion across topics such as eternal life and our world's environment. The prolongation of life and the observation of nature hold great significance to science and religion alike; just as Christianity has the Kingdom of God, so does science speak of an animal Kingdom comprised of creatures. It is this common ground that Drummond uses for his thesis. Drummond was prompted to author this book in the late 19th century, having observed a growing rigor and interrelated discipline between the sciences. For him, this was a natural evolution - where once science was a group of disparate facts and knowledge, so too was God obscured by polytheism and other extraneous beliefs and practices. For Drummond, the trend points to a growth in sophistication of scientific law and spiritual law. He states that eventually, as science and spiritual beliefs advance evermore greatly, the two may merge and reconcile into a single, unified, and overarching law of the universe.

This report offers highlights from the National Survey of Giving, Volunteering, and Participating (NSGVP) which was undertaken to better understand how Canadians support individuals and communities on their own or through their involvement with charitable and nonprofit organizations. The NSGVP was conducted as a supplement to the Labour Force Survey in November 2000. For this survey, thousands of Canadians aged 15 and over were asked how they: gave money and other resources to individuals and to organizations; volunteered time to help others and to enhance their communities; and participated in the practices which help give substance to active citizenship. The results from this survey allow this report to tell a story about who Canada's volunteers, charitable donors and civic participators are and the ways in which they contribute to our society.

A beautifully drawn comic book inspired by Japanese manga and Indigenous art and legend This powerful story about a brave hummingbird shares a message of environmental stewardship Hummingbirds have long been a symbol of wisdom and courage. In this breathtaking book, a hummingbird makes a valiant effort to put out a raging fire that threatens her forest home. She makes many trips over the burning woodland because her tiny beak can only hold one drop of water at a time. Her efforts show the other creatures in the forest that doing something—anything—is better than doing nothing at all. Will they join her in her fight to save their home? The hummingbird parable, which originates with the Quechuan people of South America, has become a talisman for environmentalists and activists worldwide committed to making meaningful change. This retelling, enlivened by Michael Nicoll Yahgulanaas' fabulous Haida-Manga illustrations, is suitable for all ages of would-be activists. Although environmental responsibility often seems like an overwhelming task, The Flight of the Hummingbird shows how easy it is to start and how great the effect could be if everyone just did what they could.

A Guide to a Loving, Healthy Life and World We all want to have a loving, abundant and healthy life, so we should know the laws that truly guide us to achieve the life and evolvment God meant for us to have. Universal Spiritual Laws (USL) are the unbreakable God given laws that created and govern the physical and spiritual universes. This book presents the primary USL (Love) and numerous secondary laws that all relate to the primary law. Over many generations, unfortunately, mankind has replaced God's USL with their own self-serving laws, leaving our world in the condition it is today. The USL were given to me by a highly spiritually evolved Goddess of Motherhood, Mercy and Compassion, Quan Yin (see image) through a very gifted and evolved medium, Reverend Beverly Burdick-Carey. The spiritual source by-passes the human negative thinking, ego and desire for power and gives only truth. Your thoughts, words and deeds, whether positive or negative, cannot escape USL and determine our physical and spiritual life and evolvment which is our purpose here on earth. Since we create our own life's path, follow the USL in a positive way to avoid having to repeat needed life lessons and speed your evolvment and have a more ideal life. How you follow the USL is your choice. It is also extremely important to know and understand that WE ARE ALL A PART OF GOD and GOD IS ALL. Good health is very important in life and with forty years of medical and spiritual study and practice, I have learned that our life plans and health are created by our own mind, beliefs and soul. Therefore I chose to briefly cover the healing aspects of each USL to help you improve your health and healing. Use the knowledge, wisdom and truths given to me that comprises this book to better your physical and spiritual evolvment, healing and life. You can summarize this book in two words, UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, but you need to learn, study and follow the USL to reach it. Know the truth and truth will set you free. Keep an open mind and heart and start with small steps and I wish you Love and Light.

"The Way of the Master" is the flagship work of Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron's organization. It anchors their television program, radio program, and website. Considered by many to be the definitive text in evangelism, this book is coming to Bridge-Logos to be updated, expanded, and illustrated with photographs for Spring 2006 release. It's an anecdotal, loaded with commentary and remarks that are more conversational than academic. It's an easy read with a hard message that has already changed the face of sharing faith.

I received four stories over a few months from dreams that came over a period of days and stayed in my mind until I wrote them down, and others via my subconscious. When I was sitting in my car at the beach and events happened that forced me to go home and sit at my computer, the stories came at great speed into my mind, and I typed them out and read them afterwards.

The first is about a young girl who has moved to London for her new job working for the government. She meets a young gypsy who wants to tell her something. They have a connection, and events lead her to join him in the summer at the gypsy encampment, where she learns of her true family. Her life changes from there. The second story, again from a dream over a period of days, is a love story. A girl has a past that gets in the way. The third story I love. I was sitting in my car at the beach and words ran across the book I was trying to read. I drove home, and before I arrived at my door, the words were pushing their way into my head. I sat and typed as fast as my fingers could keep me going, and then it ended. I did not know what I wrote, so I read the story: an amusing plan by six young adults to have a mystery holiday, while at the same time creating fun things for each of them to do while waiting for clues at their hotel, each one filled with mischief. It had an amusing twist for the ending. However, that night I had to get up and go to my computer and continue with a second part to the story. I really enjoyed it. The final story was very emotional for me. There was heartache, the mystery of where your soul goes after death, how life continues on a new path, and who is in charge.
