SOMMES-NOUS À LA FIN D’UN TEMPS? Cambridge University Press

« La fin du monde ». Allez savoir pourquoi on en parle tant pour l’année 2012, en référence à une prétendue prophétie maya. L’idée d’une fin du monde est commune à toutes les civilisations.

Partout, le monde a été créé, et puisqu’il y a un commencement des temps, il y aura forcément une fin des temps. Ceci étant d’ailleurs vérifié par la Science. Dans la Bible, il est parlé également de « fin », mais si l’Apocalypse n’exclut pas l’idée d’une catastrophe destructrice de l’Humanité, elle parle aussi d’une Révélation (c’est la signification du mot grec apocalypsos). Qui disant « Révélation » signifiant sans ambiguïté qu’il y a quelque chose d’autre « après ». Un Monde Nouveau, un temps nouveau. « La fin d’un temps » s’inscrit dans la Bonne Espérance d’un changement, radical et durable, une « révolution » dans notre façon de penser et notre façon d’être. Sommes-nous à la fin d’un temps ? retrace l’évolution d’un système qui eut ses heures de gloire et qui, devenu par trop obsolète, a abouti à un bouleversement. On ne peut ignorer la différence d’esprit entre l’Ancien Régime, royaliste, et le Nouveau Régime, républicain, mais on oublie facilement la différence, volontairement occultée, entre l’Église avant la Révolution et l’Église après la Révolution. Alors que la royauté était intimement liée à l’Église, cette Alliance entre le Trône et l’Autel qui remonte à la nuit des temps, la République, par une extension de la laïcité, s’est détachée des choses du Ciel, reléguant la divinité au rang de deus otiosus. L’étude honnête montre pourtant que jamais le Merveilleux n’a été autant manifesté que depuis la Révolution, et que tout annonce (pour bientôt) un événement de nature providentielle qui va bouleverser le cours de l’Histoire. Cet ouvrage, fruit de très nombreuses années de recherches, constitue une somme quant aux manifestations mariales et christiques, où l'auteur renouant avec les textes authentiques, montre à quel point il y a loin de l'Histoire Simple à l'Histoire Sainte.

"History of the War in the Peninsula and in the South of France from the Year 1807 to the Year 1814, Vol. 4" by William Francis Patrick Napier continues the compelling historical account of the Napoleonic Wars in the Iberian Peninsula and other one southern France. This volume picks up from where its predecessor left off, delving deeper into the complex military campaigns and political intrigues, and also human stories that unfolded between 1807 and 1814. With meticulous detail and insightful analysis, Napier narrates pivotal events like the Battle of Vitoria, the Pyrenees campaign, and the subsequent allied invasion of France itself. The author which that offers a comprehensive perspective on the strategies and tactics, and other one leadership of the opposing forces, particularly the British and Portuguese, Spanish, and French armies. Through this comprehensive work, Napier masterfully explores the impact of the war on both soldiers and civilians, shedding light on the suffering, courage, and resilience displayed by those caught in the conflict's crossfire. He also examines the diplomatic and political intricacies that shaped the course of the war, as well as the profound consequences it had on the geopolitical landscape of the time.

Building on the insights of the first volume on Music and Gesture (Gritten and King, Ashgate 2006), the rationale for this sequel volume is twofold: first, to clarify the way in which the subject is continuing to take shape by highlighting both central and developing trends, as well as popular and less frequent areas of investigation; second, to provide alternative and complementary insights into the particular areas of the subject articulated in the first volume. The thirteen chapters are structured in a broad narrative trajectory moving from theory to practice, embracing Western and non-Western practices, real and virtual gestures, live and recorded performances, physical and acoustic gestures, visual and auditory perception, among other themes of topical interest. The main areas of enquiry include psychobiology; perception and cognition; philosophy and semiotics; conducting; ensemble work and solo piano playing. The volume is intended to promote and stimulate further research in Musical Gesture Studies.

In this wide-ranging inside view of the history and practice of conducting, analysis and advice comes directly from working conductors, including Sir Charles Mackerras on opera, Bramwell Tovey on being an Artistic Director, Martyn Brabbins on modern music, Leon Botstein on programming and Vance George on choral conducting, and from those who work closely with conductors: a leading violinist describes working as a soloist with Stokowski, Ormandy and Barbirolli, while Solti and Abbado's studio producer explains orchestral recording, and one of the world's most powerful managers tells all. The book includes advice on how to conduct different types of groups (choral, opera, symphony, early music) and provides a substantial history of conducting as a study of national traditions. It is an unusually honest book about a secretive industry and managers, artistic directors, soloists, players and conductors openly discuss their different perspectives for the first time.
