Después de La villa de las telas llega la segunda parte de esta saga romántica histórica para fans de Downton Abbey, María Dueñas, Kate Morton o Lucinda Riley, que ha cautivado a más de un millón y medio de lectoras. Una poderosa familia. Una guerra terrible. Una mansión que esconde más de un secreto... El destino de una familia en tiempos convulsos y un amor que todo lo vence. Augsburg, 1916. La mansión de la familia Melzer pasa a ser, por necesidad, un hospital militar. Las hijas de la casa, ayudadas por el servicio, se convierten en enfermeras que curan, cuidan y escuchan a los heridos en combate. Entretanto, Marie, la joven esposa de Paul Melzer, se hace cargo de la fábrica de telas en ausencia de su marido. Sin embargo, recibe una terrible noticia: su cuñado ha caído en el frente y Paul es ahora un prisionero de guerra. Marie se niega a que las circunstancias la vengzan y lucha con todas sus fuerzas por preservar el patrimonio familiar. Pero, mientras no pierde la esperanza de volver a ver a Paul con vida y se deja la piel en la fábrica, el elegante Ernst von Klippstein aparece en la puerta de la mansión, empeñado en no perder de vista a la joven y bella mujer que tiene entre sus capaces manos el destino de la familia Melzer. Esta apasionante saga familiar terminará en la tercera parte El legado de la villa de las telas.

ENGLISH DESCRIPTION After La villa de las telas / The Cloth Villa comes the second part of this exciting historic romantic saga for fans of Downton Abbey, María Dueñas, Kate Morton, and Lucinda Riley, that has already captivated over a million and a half readers. A powerful family. A terrible war. A mansion that hides many dark secrets. A family's destiny in tumultuous times, and a love that conquers all. Augsburg, 1916. The Melzer's family mansion becomes, by necessity, a military hospital. The daughters in the family, helped by the maids, become nurses who heal, care for, and listen to those wounded in combat. Meanwhile Marie, Paul Melzer's young wife, takes over the cloth factory due to her husband's absence. Soon however, she receives terrible news: her brother-in-law has fallen in combat and Paul is now a prisoner of war. Marie refuses to be overcome by her current circumstances and fights with all her strength to preserve the family legacy. But, while she does not lose the hope of seeing Paul alive again and works tirelessly in the factory, the elegant Ernst von Klippstein shows up at the mansion determined not to lose sight of the beautiful young woman who holds the fate of the Melzer family in her capable hands. This passionate family saga will continue, and end, on the third installment, The Legacy of the Cloth Villa.

La villa de las telas / The Cloth Villa PLAZA & JANÉS

Barbara Mutch's stunning first novel tells a story of love and duty colliding on the arid plains of Apartheid-era South Africa When Cathleen Harrington leaves her home in Ireland in 1919 to travel to South Africa, she knows that she does not love the man she is to marry there —her fiance Edward, whom she has not seen for five years. Isolated and estranged in a small town in the harsh Karoo desert, her only real companions are her diary and her housemaid, and later the housemaid's daughter, Ada. When Ada is born, Cathleen recognizes in her someone she can love and respond to in a way that she cannot with her own family. Under Cathleen's tutelage, Ada grows into an accomplished pianist and a reader who cannot resist turning the pages of the diary, discovering the secrets Cathleen sought to hide. As they grow closer, Ada sees new possibilities in front of her—a new horizon. But in one night, everything changes, and Cathleen comes home from a trip to find that Ada has disappeared, scorned by her own community. Cathleen must make a choice: should she conform to society, or search for the girl who has become closer to her than her own daughter? Set against the backdrop of a beautiful, yet divided land, The Housemaid's Daughter is a startling and thought-provoking novel that intricately portrays the drama and heartbreak of two women who rise above cruelty to find love, hope, and redemption.

Una poderosa familia. Una situación dramática. Una mansión que esconde más de un secreto... La brillante tercera parte de la saga superventas que comenzó con La villa de las telas. Augsburg, 1920. El estado de ánimo en la villa es optimista respecto al futuro. Paul Melzer ha regresado del frente y toma las riendas de la fábrica decidido a que el negocio familiar recupere su antiguo esplendor. Las cosas van bien incluso para su hermana Elizabeth, que regresa a casa ilusionada con un nuevo amor. Pero «felices para siempre» puede estar aún lejos para los Melzer. Marie, la joven esposa de Paul, quiere cumplir un viejo sueño: tener su propio taller de moda. A pesar de que sus modelos y sus diseños gozan de éxito, su alegría se ve empañada por las constantes discusiones con su marido. Incapaz de soportarlo más, Marie, la mujer que mantuvo a flote la fábrica, la villa y a toda la familia cuando más la necesitaron, toma una dura decisión y abandona la mansión junto a sus hijos. ENGLISH DESCRIPTION A powerful family. A dramatic situation. A mansion that hides more than one secret. The brilliant third part of the bestselling saga that started with The Cloth Villa. Augsburg, 1920. The villa is optimistic about the future. Paul Melzer has returned from battle and taken over the reins of the factory, determined to bring the family business back to its prior splendor. Things are even going well for his sister Elizabeth, who returns home excited for her new romance. But “happily ever after” is still far away for the Melzers. Marie, Paul’s young wife, wants to accomplish an old dream: to have her own fashion studio. Despite the fact that her models and designs enjoy great success, her joy is dulled by constant arguments with her husband. Unable to stand it any longer, Marie, the woman who kept the factory, the villa, and her whole family alive when they needed her most, makes a tough decision and leaves the mansion with her children.

As seen in the New York Times Book Review. A December 2019 Indie Next Pick! Set against the Frankfurt Auschwitz Trials of 1963, Annette Hess’s international bestseller is a harrowing yet ultimately uplifting coming-of-age story about a young female translator—caught between societal and familial expectations and her unique ability to speak truth to power—as she fights to expose the dark truths of her nation’s past. If everything your family told you was a lie, how far would you go to uncover the truth? For twenty-four-year-old Eva Bruhns, World War II is a foggy childhood memory. At the war’s end, Frankfurt was a smoldering ruin, severely damaged by the Allied bombings. But that was two decades ago. Now it is 1963, and the city’s streets, once cratered are smooth and paved. Shiny new stores replace scorched rubble. Eager for her wealthy suitor, Jürgen Schoormann, to propose, Eva dreams of starting a new life away from her parents and sister. But Eva’s plans are turned upside down when a fiery investigator, David Miller, hires her as a translator for a war crimes trial. As she becomes more deeply involved in the Frankfurt Trials, Eva begins to question her family’s silence on the war and her future. Why do her parents refuse to talk about what happened? What are they hiding? Does she really love Jürgen and will she be happy as a housewife?

Though it means going against the wishes of her family and her lover, Eva, propelled by her own conscience, joins a team of fiery prosecutors determined to bring the Nazis to justice—a decision that will help change the present and the past of her nation.

The Moon Sister National Geographic Books

A magnificent saga of two proud and powerful families—one British, one African—and their battle over Kenya’s destiny in the twentieth century. In 1917, Dr. Grace Treverton arrives in Kenya, determined to bring modern medicine to the African natives. Her brother, Sir Valentine Treverton, has his own dream for the British protectorate: to establish an agricultural empire to rival any in England. The aspirations of the wealthy Trevertons collide with those of the Mathenge tribe, an African family that has lived on the land for years. Grace soon finds a deadly rival in Mama Wachera, an African medicine woman who fights to maintain native traditions against the encroaching whites. After Wachera curses the Trevertons, a series of tragedies threatens to destroy what the once-great family fought to create. But the fates of future generations of these two remarkable families are inextricably bound. A bold and brilliant achievement, Green City in the Sun brims with all the drama, violence, and fierce beauty of the Kenyan landscape.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • The incomparable Danielle Steel breaks new ground as she takes us to nineteenth-century England, where a high-born young woman is forced out into the world—and begins a journey of survival, sensuality, and long-sought justice. Angélique Latham has grown up at magnificent Belgrave Castle under the loving tutelage of her father, the Duke of Westerfield, after the death of her aristocratic French mother. At eighteen she is her father’s closest, most trusted child, schooled in managing their grand estate. But when he dies, her half-brothers brutally turn her out, denying her very existence. Angélique has a keen mind, remarkable beauty, and an envelope of money her father pressed upon her. To survive, she will need all her resources—and one bold stroke of fortune. Unable to secure employment without references or connections, Angélique desperately makes her way to Paris, where she rescues a young woman fleeing an abusive madam—and suddenly sees a possibility: Open an elegant house of pleasure that will protect its women and serve only the best clients. With her upper-class breeding, her impeccable style, and her father’s bequest, Angélique creates Le Boudoir, soon a sensational establishment where powerful men, secret desires, and beautiful, sophisticated women come together. But living on the edge of scandal, can she ever make a life of her own—or regain her rightful place in the world? From England to Paris to New York, Danielle Steel captures an age of upheaval and the struggles of women in a male-ruled society—and paints a captivating portrait of a woman of unquenchable spirit, who in houses great or humble is every ounce a duchess.

Experience the grandeur of the remote Scottish Highlands and Madrid in this USA TODAY bestselling “beautifully written...magical adventure” (Woman’s World) following two women connected across time and distance as they search for the truth of their place in the world. Tiggy D’Aplìese spends her days reveling in the raw beauty of the Scottish Highlands, where she works at a deer sanctuary. But when the sanctuary is forced to close, she decides to take a job as a wildlife consultant on the vast estate of the elusive and troubled Charlie Kinnaird. She has no idea that the move will not only irrevocably alter her future, but also bring her face-to-face with her past. At the estate, she meets Chilly, an elderly Romani man who fled from Spain seventy years earlier. He tells her that not only does she possess a sixth sense passed down from her ancestors, but it was foretold long ago that he would be the one to send her back home. Back in 1912, in the poor Romani community outside the city walls of Granada, Lucía Amaya-Albaycin is born. At the tender age of ten, Lucía is whisked away by her ambitious father to dance in the flamenco bars of Barcelona. And while Lucía perfects her skills—eventually becoming the greatest flamenco dancer of her generation—tensions in Spain boil over into civil war, forcing Lucía and her troupe of dancers to flee for their lives. As they travel in search of a safe haven, Lucía’s long-held dream of going to New York may be in grasp. But to pursue it, she must choose between her love for her career and the man she adores. “A breathtaking adventure brimming with cruelty, tragedy, passion, [and] obsession” (Lancashire Evening Post, UK), The Moon Sister follows these two women on their journey to discover their true destinies—but at the risk of potentially losing the men they had hoped to build futures with.
