GCSE Separate

Sciences Japan Times Publishing, Limited

This course translates the theory of task-based learning into a practical and user-friendly coursebook, recognizing that the performance of regular spoken and written tasks is crucial to successful language acquisition. It combines elements of the task-based approach with a strong emphasis on vocabulary, alongside a comprehensive grammar and skills syllabus.

Cutting edge Macmillan
Elt

Opportunities ensures the most effective language learning possible, by focussing specifically on the needs of the secondary school learner, especially those preparing for school-leaving exams.

New Headway: Pre-Intermediate Fourth Edition: Student's Book A OUP Oxford

"[P]rovides thorough and practical understanding of the mechanics of the English language. This series uses American English and explains key language differences from British English. Over the course of the six books, students will advance from intermediate to upper-intermediate material"--Page [4] of cover.

Focus BrE 5 Workbook

Pearson Longman

Focuses for the first time on materials development and applications of current research and theory for the main areas of applied linguistics (e.g. second language acquisition, pragmatics, vocabulary studies). There are many books on applied linguistic theory and research and there are now a number of books on the principled development of materials for language learning, but this book takes a new approach by connecting the two concerns. Each of its chapters first of all presents relevant theories and research conclusions for its area and then considers practical applications for materials development. The chapters achieve these applications by reporting and commenting on current theory and research, by analysing the match between current published materials and current theory and by suggesting and exemplifying applications of current theory to materials development. This will be an essential resource both for those studying or teaching materials development and for those studying or teaching applied linguistics.
