 IFRS 16 takes a totally new approach to accounting for leases, called the 'right-of-use' model. This means that if a company has control over, or right to use, an asset they are renting, it is classified as a lease for accounting purposes and, under the new rules, must be recognised on the company's balance sheet.

 The Simple Guide to IFRS 16: What You Need to Know
 IFRS 17 is the newest IFRS standard for insurance contracts and replaces IFRS 4 on January 1st 2022. It states which insurance contracts items should be on the balance and the profit and loss account of an insurance company, how to measure these items and how to present and disclose this information.
