Accidental Branding How Ordinary PeopleEvery year, thousands of new business are started by people with no knowledge of modern marketing at all?and some of them survive and thrive.

Accidental Branding tells the story of seven "accidental" brands and how their founders beat bigger competitors by breaking the standard rules of marketing. Successful brands like Burt's Bees, J. Peterman, and Clif Bar reveal how doing things differently can lead to big-time success.

Accidental Branding: How Ordinary People Build ...Accidental Branding presents a series of case studies highlighting companies and their founders who have encountered overwhelming success from surprising circumstances. The recurring characteristics of these entrepreneurs from companies like Burt's Bees, Columbia Sportswear and craigslist include risk-taking, authenticity, determination, fearlessness, attention to detail, creativity and, in most cases, great timing and little magic.
