Treasure Hunters: Danger Down the Nile Cedar Fort Publishing & Media

Four children who are spending their summer in northern Michigan at a cottage with their parents, find a very old bottle under some tree roots along the lake shore. Inside, they find a clue which suggests there might be buried treasure nearby, and this begins a hunt which leads them to more clues, and finally, the treasure.

You Are Now Less Dumb National Geographic Books

Underachiever Hank Zipzer goes on an unfortunate school camping trip in a comical, kid-friendly novelization of the popular BBC series based on Henry Winkler's best-selling books. What will it take for Mom and Dad to trust Hank to go to the mall unsupervised with his friends? Cooking a family dinner — er, disaster — doesn't exactly say "responsible." But what if Hank signs up for the school's notorious survival camp and makes it through the whole weekend? Maybe he should factor in being teamed up with his nemesis, McKelty, in a leaky tent, not to mention a desperate search for a cell phone in a field of cow pies. . . . The amiable character originated by Henry Winkler — inspired by his own childhood — comes to life in a humorous adventure set in a font designed to boost readability for kids with dyslexia.

Treasure Hunters: Quest for the City of Gold U of Nebraska Press

Four years ago Andy and Trevor went on a treasure hunt in a cave known as Bogus Bluff. Now college students, they find information about another treasure, a sunken 1800's riverboat that was carrying over 300 pounds of gold. They're just itching for another adventure, hoping that they'll be able to solve the mystery of this missing boat and a pile of gold.

The Mercer Boys on a Treasure Hunt Young Writers

In the finale of James Patterson's bestselling series, the Kidds compete for fame and glory—but can they solve a mystery, restore their family name and uncover the biggest treasure yet? Bick, Beck, Storm, and Tommy Kidd have uncovered and rescued some of the world's greatest treasure, without ever seeking out fame and glory. So they aren't happy when the Collier Kids (as in Nathan Collier, the Kidds's nemesis) start treasure hunting for the camera, more focused on looking good and selling ads for their streaming show than actually recovering treasure. When the Kidds are invited to compete with the Colliers for the title of "The World's Greatest Treasure Hunting Kids," they jump at the chance to show the world what real treasure hunting looks like. But with rumors swirling of a family mistake made by the Kidds' great-grandfather years ago, the Kidds discover that fame and glory aren't the only things on the line. Will they be able to solve the mystery, restore their family name, and recover their biggest treasure haul yet?

Eva's Campfire Adventure: #12 Discovery Education: Sensation

Kids love treasure hunts. A treasure hunt can be designed to match a party's theme (such as a pirate, princess, favorite superhero, or favorite cartoon character) or you can have one just because it sounds like fun. There are so many different treasure hunt themes and ideas that it will amaze you. And trust me they can be just as much fun for you to design as they are for the kids to play. Inside you will find several examples of party ideas, ways to write clues, games and activities to play while in the middle of the treasure hunt and all sorts of ideas. These ideas are just ideas. You will be the one who creates 'The Magic'. You will be adding your own creativity and imagination to the party. You can adjust any of these ideas to fit almost any age group. So create an adventure for your kids this year. Create a Treasure Hunt. They'll remember it forever and who knows, they might even create one for their kids when they grow-up. Have fun. It's all about the Adventure! ChristyDavisBooks.Com 2013

The author of the bestselling You Are Not So Smart shares more discoveries about self-delusion and irrational thinking, and gives readers a fighting chance at outsmarting their not-so-smart brains David McRaney's first book, You Are Not So Smart, evolved from his wildly popular blog of the same name. A mix of popular psychology and trivia, McRaney's insights have struck a chord with thousands, and his blog--and now podcasts and videos--have become an Internet phenomenon. Like You Are Not So Smart, You Are Now Less Dumb is grounded in the idea that we all believe ourselves to be objective observers of reality--except we're not. But that's okay, because our delusions keep us sane. Expanding on this premise, McRaney provides eye-opening analyses of fifteen more ways we fool ourselves every day, including: The Misattribution of Arousal (Environmental factors have a greater affect on our emotional arousal than the person right in front of us) Sunk Cost Fallacy (We will engage in something we don't enjoy just to make the time or money already invested "worth it") Deindividuation (Despite our best intentions, we practically disappear when subsumed by a mob mentality) McRaney also reveals the true price of happiness, why Benjamin Franklin was such a badass, and how to avoid falling for our own lies. This smart and highly entertaining book will be wowing readers for years to come.
