About Love, Life, and
...Kook means “beginner surfer.” It is not a neutral term; it carries a slug of

derision, a brand for the clueless, for those without hope, without grace, without rhythm.
To be a kook is to be consigned to a kind of beginner’s hell. The seal disappeared in a
swirl of green water.

...Kook is a term of disrespect that signifies a beginner surfer. It is used by the more experienced
surfers at breaks to intimidate and
discourage beginners
from spoiling their chances of catching waves. There is etiquette to surfing in crowds and beginners must learn it or suffer abuse. Kook: What Surfing Taught Me About Love, Life, and ... At Huntington Beach, Heller violates every rule of surfing etiquette, and other surfers vilify him as a kook, a beginning surfer. Initially, Heller is embarrassed, but he soon becomes so consumed by surfing that he brings Kim to California with him so that she can take lessons; soon, the two are traveling to various surfing locales in California and Mexico as Heller follows the waves.
