"Architectural concepts and styles seem to flourish from the most local of contexts to the global." "This book investigates the
regional, often
conceived today as a
late nineteenth-century phenomenon, primarily on account of the preservation and
restoration movements that arose. An interdisciplinary approach to regionalism, as manifested not only in architecture but also in art and literature,
necessitates a more
thorough examination
of the complexity and multilayered quality of the phenomenon."
"The research is limited in time to the nineteenth century
plus the years leading up to the First World

War, and in place to Western Europe, with an emphasis on Belgium, France and England, and to a lesser extent on the Netherlands, Germany
and Spain."--BOOK

This volume explores in fascinating detail the French use of partisan warfare during the Dutch War (1672-78).
It demonstrates how Louis XIV succeeded in using partisan warfare
in accomplishing his aggressive goals of conquest in the Spanish Netherlands.

The Passion of George Sarton

Landscapes of the Imagination

Looking at suburbs as places of creativity
gives rise to novel and thought-provoking
narratives that typically run counter to the idea that suburbs are sites of "ordinary," "mundane," and "everyday" practices. Far from being geographies of "nowhere" – dull, materialistic, and monotone – suburbs are unpacked as being heterogeneous and historically layered places of living, work, and creation. Situating creativity in place and time, Creativity from Suburban Nowheres displaces mainstream understandings of creativity and widespread stereotypes commonly associated with the suburbs. Contributors explore the particular forms of creativity that suburbs elicit both in the process of their making, materialization, and community construction, and in the myriad ways in which suburbs are inhabited and experienced. They highlight accounts of suburbs as places that give people the space and latitude to shape individual and collective identities through creative practices at odds with mainstream culture, and often remote from the classic agglomeration "assets" associated with inner cities. Anchored in historical and geographical research, this volume highlights how and in what forms creativity should be understood in the suburbs, why and when creativity can be found, and how the notion of suburban creativity overthrows ingrained and dominant normative viewpoints. Rather than seeing creativity arise despite its suburban location, Creativity from Suburban Nowheres illuminates the emancipatory potential of suburbs for creativity.

Dicționarul conține un amplu material informativ referitor la principalele curente, tendințe, grupări și personalități din cadrul artei moderne, începând cu momentul apariției impresionismului, în anii 1870, și până în prezent. O atenție specială este acordată manifestărilor cu declarat program novator, volumul remarcându-se prin varietatea operelor și numelor invocate.

Întrucât arta

contemporană reconsideră raportul dintre expansiunea universalist-globalistă și specificul zonelor culturale, marginalizate de multe ori de sintezele domeniului, autorul extinde comentariul critic asupra fenomenului artistic din aceste spații culturale. Bogat ilustrat, Dicționarul de artă modernă și contemporană se adresează deopotrivă profesioniștilor din domeniu și publicului iubitor de artă.

This new edition of 'a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject,' as the Sunday Times called it, includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography. Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art, assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play. The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels-

Impressionism and Expressionism, Symbolism, Cubism, Constructivism, Surrealism, etc.-and to the achievements of Degas and Cezanne, Ensor and Munch, Matisse and Kandinsky, Picasso, Braque, and Epstein, Mondrian, Dali, Modigliani, Utrillo and Chagall, Klee, Henry Moore, and many other artists in a revolutionary age.

"Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume. He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known, and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves, giving us a valuable textbook." --Richard Dyer MacCann "...superb work..." --

George Sarton animated the discipline of history of science (HoS) in America. This vol. traces his youth & educ. in Belgium, & his marriage to Mabel Elwes. It follows the Sarton's in their path from idealistic refugees fleeing the invasion of Belgium in 1914 to destitute intellectuals at Harvard Univ. For 50 years, HoS as an acad. specialty owed much to Sarton's visions & anxieties, esp. as they were expressed in his marriage. Mabel Sarton sustained his enterprise & contributed to its form, which included parts of socialism, pacifism, aesthetics, & faith. Themes present in Sarton's early work include the common endeavor of artists & scientists, the private nature of scientific innovation, & the HoS as a bridge between the humanities & the natural sciences. A sweeping historical novel and an intergenerational family saga about the mysterious disappearance of a Congolese princess and the niece who is determined to uncover her fate more than four decades later, by the internationally acclaimed and award-winning Congolese Canadian author Blaise Ndala. April 1958. Princess Tshala Nyota, daughter of King Kena Kwete III of the Kuba people in Congo, is among the eleven “villagers” put on display at the 1958 World’s Fair in Brussels. After the humiliation of the Nazi occupation, the royal palace is determined to restore the Belgian colonial empire’s honor and prestige by showcasing the successful “civilization” of Congo, Belgium’s “model colony,” at one of the biggest international events since the end of the Second World War. The young princess recounts her journey from her home of Kasai to a Catholic school run by nuns, where she meets and falls madly in love with a handsome Belgian administrator. But when her father discovers the affair, his fury cannot be contained. Fearing for her life and his own, Tshala’s lover sends her to Léopoldville to stay with his friend, a collector and dealer specializing in African art. In the capital, she is immersed in a world pulsing with youth, sex, energy, and hope for the new independent republic. But when Tshala is betrayed by her lover’s friend, she is sent to Brussels and her forced exhibition at Expo ’58. Soon after, she mysteriously disappears. August 2003. Nyota Kwete, the princess’s niece, is sent to Brussels to continue her education at the university. Before she departs, her father charges her with the task of discovering the fate of the missing princess. In Brussels, she is welcomed by the Congolese diaspora community and crosses paths with a Belgian scholar who is haunted by his own ghosts. Together, they uncover important secrets that were taken to the grave. In this internationally acclaimed and award-winning novel, Congolese Canadian author Blaise Ndala examines Belgium and Congo's colonial past and current legacy through the lives of two unforgettable women, connected by family and history across continents and decades.

Guide du Routard Belgique 2021 Editions Mardaga This ground-breaking book presents a critical study of pictorial narrative in nineteenth-century European painting. Covering works from France, Germany, Britain, Italy and elsewhere, it traces the ways in which immensely popular artists like Jean-Léon Gérôme, Karl von Piloty and William Quiller Orchardson used unique visual strategies to tell thrilling and engaging stories. Regardless of genre, content or national context, these paintings share a fundamental modern narrative mode. Unlike traditional art, they do not rely on textual sources; nor do they tell stories through the human body alone. Instead, they experiment with objects, spaces, cause-and-effect relations and open-ended ambiguity, prompting viewers and reviewers to read for clues in order to weave their own elaborate tales.

Tot in de jaren 1920 heerste in Antwerpen al bij al een tolerant klimaat tegenover joden. 'Vreemdelingen in een wereldstad' beschrijft hoe de vreemdelingenhaat de kop opsteekt in het Antwerpen van de jaren 1930, zich aanvankelijk vooral nestelt in kringen van Belgisch-nationalisten, en niet in die van het verdraagzamer Vlaams-nationalisme, en uiteindelijk een catastrofaal culminatiepunt bereikt tijdens de bezetting. De lakse houding van vele gezagsdragers en het gebrek aan (passief) verzet in het algemeen waren uiteindelijk bepalend voor het hoge

Antwerpse
deportatiecijfer.
