Studies in Islamic

Civilization draws upon the works of Western scholars to make the case that without the tremendous contribution of the Muslim world there would have been no

Renaissance in Europe.

For almost a thousand years Islam was arguably one of the leading civilizations of the world spanning a geographic area greater than any other. It eliminated social distinctions between classes and races, made clear that people should enjoy the bounties of the earth provided they did not ignore morals and ethics, and rescued knowledge that would have been lost, if not forever, then at least for centuries. The genius of its scholars triggered the intellectual tradition of Europe and for over seven hundred years its language, Arabic, was the international language of science. Strange then that its legacy lies largely ignored and buried in time. In the words of Aldous Huxley, "Great is truth, but still greater, from a practical point of view, is silence about truth. By simply not mentioning certain subjects... propagandists have influenced opinion much more effectively than they could have by the most eloquent denunciations." Studies in Islamic Civilization is a compelling attempt to redress this wrong and restore the historical truths of a "golden age" that ushered in the Islamic renaissance, and as a by-product that of the West. In doing so it gives a bird's eye view of the achievements of a culture that at its height was considered the model of human progress and development. (2010).

 Kitabu hiki kinahusu Sanaa ya uigizaji na misingi yake. Ni kitabu kinachomfaa mtu yeyote yule awe mkubwa au mdogo ambaye anapenda kujiongezea weledi katika Sanaa hii. Kitabu kinaelekeza namna ya kuigiza katika filamu, televisheni, redioni na jukwaani. Ni maarifa ambayo unaweza kuyapata kitabuni humu na ukaokoa fedha yako ambayo ingepotea kutokana na kuigiza kwa viwango 'duni' - jambo linalomaanisha kulipwa ujira mdogo. Lakini ukishajua namna ya kuigiza kwa misingi ambayo imedadavuliwa humu ndani, utaweza kukikuza kipato chako kwa sababu Sanaa yako itakuwa ya kiwango cha juu - na dau lako litakuwa juu (malipo yataongezeka kiwango kwa kuwa utakuwa mahiri katika Sanaa hii ya kuigiza - thamani yako itapanda).

Mwongozo wa kitumbua kimeingia mchanga Boydell & Brewer Ltd
 For more than fifty years a dynamic modern literature has been developing in the Kiswahili language. The political weight that Kiswahili carries as the emerging national and pan-national language of many East African countries places this literature, much of it in the form of novels, at the centre of heated literary debates on the social function of literature in the context of rapid global social change. Garnier provides new insights into the Swahili novel form with all its vibrancy and capacity for experimentation. Its obsession with social issues relates to larger, all-pervasive political debates running through East Africa: in its press, its streets, its public and private places. The novels both record and provoke these debates. Based on the study of more than 175 Swahili novels by almost 100 authors, Garnier brings to light a body of work much neglected by African literary critics, but which looks outwards to the wider world. Xavier Garnier teaches African Literature at the Universit Paris 3 Sorbonne Nouvelle and is former director of the Centre d'Etudes des Nouveaux Espaces Littéraires, Universit Paris 13.
