 In animals A-Z: Poems for Early Readers a different approach to teaching the alphabet is taken. It features animals - both familiar and unfamiliar- and utilizes rhyme to teach readers about the alphabet and the animals simultaneously. Vocabulary and illustrations are tailored specifically for early readers, but the book is great for older children who might want to learn more about an animal they know little about, such as Vully Vulture or Slothy Sloth. This book is easy for a child to hold so the animals can become their friends.

 Take time out to dream! Which animal would you like to pretend to be? A crocodile who is a rock star? A daring dog flying an airplane? A hummingbird who dreams of becoming a dance star? Maybe a jaguar who is a baseball hero? A jellyfish dancing away at the prom? A raccoon who is a gymnast? A tiger doctor or a zebra detective? Each letter of the alphabet pairs a child's name with an animal friend in a short whimsical poem that is sure to make you smile!

 This is a poetry book that includes twenty-four short poems about animals. Each poem is four to five stanzas long. In most of the poems, the animals themselves are doing the talking. Most of the animals have a problem that needs to be solved. A humorous twist at the end of most of the poems solves the problem. The poems were created for memorization by first graders. After memorizing the poems, the children would create a suitable costume, stand before a microphone, and recite the poem to their parents and classmates for an end-of-the-year program. Animals included are zoo animals, farm animals, and even a spider and a fly. The book should appeal to younger children too.

Lettered Creatures Tandy Books

From armadillo to zebra, this enchanting picture book pairs the stunning photography of National Geographic photographer Joel Sartore with playful poems by New York Times best-selling author Debbie Levy to represent the letters of the alphabet and celebrate the diversity of the animal world. This unique alphabet book is a dazzling journey through the animal kingdom. It invites children and their families to linger over Sartore's spectacular portraits of animals both familiar and little known, to look these incredible creatures in the eye and marvel at their shape, form, and expression. Each animal is showcased in an original poem by Levy, whose clever, quirky verse and exuberant wordplay will delight readers young and old. The photos are part of Sartore's mission to photograph all the animal species in human care, with special attention given to rare and endangered species. A beautiful gift book for animal lovers of any age, and a very special read-aloud ABC book for young children. There are millions of books written about animals, but only two books in the world written specifically for animals-and the book "Poetry for Animals" is one of them.* Of course you may find that when you read these poems to an animal it will look surprised and uncomprehending, but this is not because the animal doesn't understand what you are saying. It is merely because no one has ever taken the trouble to read to it before, and it will only be a matter of time before the animal you are reading to will express its pleasure by purring in your lap, or cavorting gaily about its enclosure, or by gnawing on your skull, or by flying away never to be seen again. Focus-group studies have shown, however, that it is members of your species who tend actually to buy and read books of poems, thus this collection was written specifically with you in mind. * The other is "Stories for Animals," available at fine bookstores and from woodland creatures everywhere.
