Being a missionary is a noble calling, but it's also a difficult one. Missionaries face many challenges, whether adjusting to a new culture, learning a new language, or guarding against spiritual attacks. They need the support of the church and a faithful covering of prayer. But for many Christians, missionaries are out of sight, out of mind. How can we effectively intercede for the missionaries in our lives? Eddie Byun provides a handy guide to praying for missionaries. He shows the vital connection between prayer and missions, how our prayers are connected to both the well-being of missionaries and the fruit of their work. This book offers ways to pray for the various needs that missionaries have on the mission field, to prevent burnout and protect them from harm. We can partner with our missionaries as individual intercessors and as sending churches. The fields are ready for harvest. Your prayers for the workers and their ministry can make a difference.

This is not a book about how to pray. It's a book about what happens when we pray. Read over 45 stories of how the Lord has answered the prayers of a Denver church, CHCC, among their unreached people group, the Chantik. The Prayers of Many is a celebration of how prayer movements lead to the Good News of Jesus reaching the dark corners of the world. Everyone needs to be reminded periodically that God answers prayers and this book does more than just that.

Interceding for the Nations was developed as practical resource for pastors and Christian leaders seeking to lead their churches into intercessory prayer movements. It is the third in a series of sermon outline books published by the Acts in Africa Initiative. The first two books were "Proclaiming Pentecost: 100 Sermon Outlines on the Power of the Holy Spirit" and "Proclaiming Christ to the Nations: 100 Sermon Outlines on Spirit-empowered Mission." This book contains 100 sermon outlines on missional prayer, that is, prayer that serves to advance God's mission in the earth. Sermons are divided into eight categories, including "Prayer Basics," "The Power of Prayer," "Commitment to Prayer," "Intercessory Prayer Warfare," "The Holy Spirit and Prayer," "Praying for the Church and Revival," "Praying for Missionaries and Missions," and "Prayer Guides."

Mission Miracles and the Prayers of God's People Independently Published

D. E. Hoste was one of the "Cambridge Seven" who went to China as missionaries in 1885. In 1900 he succeeded Hudson Taylor as the general director of the China Inland Mission, now known as OMF. He was chosen to be the leader of the Mission because he had served the people of China and his fellow missionaries in a spirit of love, humility, and self-discipline. He was also a man of deep prayerfulness. He believed, like Hudson Taylor before him, that "it is possible to move men, through God, by prayer alone." "Patient, persevering prayer," wrote Mr. Hoste, "plays a more vital and practical part in the development of the Mission's work than most people have any idea of." Sample quotations from the book: "How important for us so to be walking with God that the senses are exercised to discern between good and evil, and thus be preserved from the allurements that would turn us from the path of the divine will." "May every child of God ever remember him who on the cross put us first, and now pleads that we should do the same for him, whether in respect of our means, our time, our strength, or the whole disposal of our lives!" "It is a commonplace to say that prayer and secret devotion are important: too often, however, we virtually contradict the words by adding that it is impossible to find time for them."

Operation World InterVarsity Press

A Country-by-Country Prayer Guide The world is getting smaller. Cutting ourselves off from Christians around the world is not an option. In many countries, the rise of persecution fuels concern over the safety and rights of believers, while other nations that used to be closed to the Gospel are seeing unprecedented numbers of conversions to Christianity. As global ambassador of the World Evangelical Alliance, what Dr. Brian Stiller experiences on the ground in these nations is often counter to our impressions. As he listens to people's ideas and observes their innovations, he invites you to see and hear what he does. An Insider's Guide to Praying for the World includes country-specific insights calling us to a deeper understanding of the Christian church and witness. Each chapter also provides prayer challenges that come from believers in the country as well as maps and sample prayers. Nations from every continent are included. Be inspired to learn about other lands--both familiar ones, such as China and Kenya, and ones you may know very little about, like Sri Lanka and Bangladesh. But more important, take part in God's work by praying for the real needs of your brothers and sisters around the world.

ABOUT THIS BOOK "Prayer, praise and worship" is equivalent to the third section in the book "A disciple of Christ" Vol. 1, designed to give the believer a solid foundation and the basic tools for becoming a stable and fruitful disciple of Christ. Prayer is said to be the breath of the Christian. In this book you will be led through the basics of a regular prayer life based on the Word and faith in God and how to minister to God out of your newborn spirit, thereby releasing God's ministering to you. The book covers the different aspects of intercession, such as giving birth to the solution of a spiritual problem, perseverance in prayer, and the issue of fasting. Finally it will explain how Jesus' "master sample"- The Lord's Prayer - is a blueprint for effective prayer About the author Jorn Overby is born of Norwegian (Lutheran) missionaries to Bangladesh and spent his childhood on the Indian subcontinent. He received his MD in Divinity at The Free Faculty of Theology in Oslo, Norway in 1981. After studies in English for "Intermediate Level" at the University of Oslo he entered into his calling of church building and international missions work in 1983. Having pioneered and pastored a church in Oslo (including a government approved kindergarten and public Christian school as well as an international Bible school) for some 22 years, he has since 2005 concentrated his work solely on the international missions field. He is the director of the missions organization Missions Thrust International, founded in 1990, and has over the last 25 years conducted interdenominational pastors' and leadership seminars as well as evangelistic campaigns in almost 50 nations around the world, predominantly in Asia and Africa. Jorn Overby resides with his wife Borghild in Oslo, Norway. They have two children.

Grumpy Mom Takes a Holiday Baker Books

Prayer, especially, mission praying has never been sustained through merely organizing mission programmes. Some Christians out of emotion would shout and jump during such meetings but at the end, they never pray again for the un- reached until, may be, another year when they gather for another programme. We must trust God to catch the spirit of prayer. This however, is a personal thing. The reason is because a programme may kindle a prayerful spirit, but can- not sustain a prayerful spirit. Catching the spirit of prayer is what sustains a prayerful spirit. The will to spend time with God alone and to pray for the nations on a consistent basis often leads men to catch the spirit of prayer, and ultimately the spirit of missions. My prayer is that you catch this spirit as you read through this little book, and pray, pray and pray! The copies of the first edition, titled, "Prayer, A Christian Response to the Missions Challenge" had exhausted. A Christian brother who read the book visited and told me how he took a copy of the book to his church and read some excerpts to the audience as he challenged the church on the matter of prayer. And he requested for more copies. I told him we did not have them again, except a few. He asked what it would cost to do a re-print. This revised edition with some excerpts from two previous editions of Occupy, centering on the theme Prayer & Missions has been reproduced, courtesy of the generosity of this brother. It is my prayer that through this book our eyes will be further opened to see the incredible power prayer has in throwing wide open, the gates of hell when His Church takes mission praying as business. Painfully today, prayer, a great weapon for revival, national rebirth and turning nations to Christ is being misused and abused. When a church, which is sup- posed to be a house of prayer for all nations, is turned to a house of prayer for self and personal vendetta against perceived enemies, it jeopardizes the purpose for which God has established the Church. Prayer, the Christian's Airpower, is a call for Christians to go back to selfless intercessory prayer for church revival and the evangelization of the nations.

I.P.T. Mission "The mission of the Intercessory Prayer Team is to personally see to the vision of the Revelation Pentecostal Holiness Church being fulfilled through our leaders. We will endeavor to support the ministry through prayer and supplication until the coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We will intercede on the behalf of others who are in need of miracles, blessings, deliverance, salvation, or any personal need according to the will of God. Our mission is to get to our heavenly place of rest by any means necessary and we will encourage as many as we can to join us on this journey. We will not get weary in well doing and we will walk and not faint. Giving up is not an option and negative speech is not allowed in our presence. We can do and will do all things through Christ who strengthens us. We will interrupt the flow of Satan and count all things to our good. We are bold, strong, powerful, intelligent, faithful, and always ready for battle." Empowered to achieve.
