I'm a grumpy loner cowboy and I like it that way. Until my beautiful mail order bride arrives and suddenly, I want more* than a marriage in name only. Ethan I'm not exactly Mr. Hearts and Flowers. I mean, I was at one point in my life. Back before I discovered my wife was cheating on me in front of the whole town. Oh, and the baby she was carrying wasn't even mine. So, to say that my late grandfather insisting that marriage is a requirement for claiming my rightful inheritance doesn't exactly have me jumping for joy. But it's too late because my mail order bride is already on her way. I have every intention of making this marriage in name only. Should be simple and easy enough...until I lay eyes on Valentine. She's the prettiest thing I've ever seen and I'm instantly in love. But are the scars from my past too much for a ray of sunshine like her? Valentine Yep, I was born on Valentine's Day and yeah, it is a dorky name. But that doesn't mean that I can't believe in family and love and forever. Sure, I was a foster kid who never knew those things. But I want to. That's why I signed up to be a mail order bride. Looking at Ethan, I know that we can make this work if he'll just give me a chance. He seems determined to close himself off, but maybe for the first time, I can convince someone I'm worth keeping. Will this lonely cowboy finally let me inside? Or are we doomed to keep this as a marriage in name only? The Scott Brothers are fierce cowboys in need of mail order brides so they can claim their rightful inheritance. But that's not the only thing these rough and dirty cowboys plan to claim! Each book in the Courage County Brides series is standalone with NO cheating and NO cliffhangers. Just a sweet, sexy HEA so you can get your swoon on.

When her beloved father fell ill, Caitlyn Flynn agreed to be the 'bonus' he'd promised his hardworking right-hand man. But the ruggedly Western Grant Davis was a far cry from the preppy schoolboys Caitlyn had known. For this broad-shouldered hunk was a real man--and she was now his wife! Grant was sure a Wyoming oil rig was no place for a debutante. Nor was his bed any place for the fresh-faced, pure Caitlyn. Grant figured just one kiss on his blue-blood bride's prim lips would set her straight--only, he didn't stop to think that his 'bonus' of a wife would spin his own blood hot! When Sunshine Patterson loses her Chicago home, job and boyfriend in one day, she needs a backup plan, fast. Luckily her Aunt Cecily has provided her with the perfect combination living and restaurant space to start over. Even though the building is located in small town Chance Creek, Montana, Sunshine is certain it's only a matter of time before she's back to take the big city by storm. When she arrives in Chance Creek, however, she gets a surprise. Her restaurant space—and apartment—are occupied by a rival to her inheritance: the incredibly sexy, incredibly wrong for her, Cole Linden. Cole's been struggling to save his family's holdings for far too long. The indoor rifle range he inherited from his father barely pays its rent, but it's all that's keeping his other concerns—two apartment houses—afloat. If he was smart, he'd walk away from all of it and start over, but if he does, several dozen of Chance Creek's inhabitants will find themselves without a home. He thought

Cecily meant to leave him the range building in her will. Instead she's set him up in a four-month-long competition with her big-city niece to see who will win the place. A niece whose knockout looks are making it damn hard for him to concentrate on the job at hand. Sunshine can't believe she'll have to open a vegan restaurant in a rifle-range waiting room, and she can't believe she'll have to share her apartment with Cole, either. Cole can't believe his friends are falling over themselves to help Sunshine succeed—and get a date with her. Now the competition is getting hot, but the sparks flying between them are even hotter. Can Cole and Sunshine find a way they both can win? For wanting her name in lights on a Hollywood marquee. For wanting to leave. And for thinking the local matchmakers are mighty mistaken! Why applaud the attraction between her and a too-handsome cowboy with boots of lead? Ross Denton lives on the outskirts of town on some dusty ranch. And the only place he wants to see his name is on a marriage certificate. So why isn't she singing and dancing away from that ranch? She can't possibly want a starring role in Ross's life as his bride...can she?

After traveling around the globe for over a year, Cole Linden is more than ready to return home to Montana, so when his fiancée, Sunshine, suddenly cuts their trip short and books them flights back to Chance Creek, Cole feels like the holidays have come early this year. He hopes she'll love the present he bought her: a restaurant space downtown. If only he can transform it into the sleek, modern style she likes before Christmas, maybe she'll finally agree to set a date for their wedding. Sunshine can't believe she's pregnant, but she is, which means it's high time to get back home. It also means she needs to re-think her career goals. She can't run a world-class restaurant in tiny Chance Creek—especially not with a baby. So Cole will have to be the breadwinner of the family. Which means he needs a ranch. Luckily she's found one. Three hundred acres of prime ranch land and a wonderful—if dilapidated—house. With Christmas looming, she'll need to race to turn it into the comfortable family home they'll need as soon as they get married. But when a delayed flight results in the loss of their hotel room, Cole and Sunshine realize they'll have to couch surf through the holidays. Staying with each of their friends in turn leads to a series of revelations that might undermine their relationship for good. Can Cole and Sunshine make it until Christmas? Or will this be the holiday that ends it all?
