Five Minutes' Peace Createspace Independent Pub

This collection of ten Christmas stories, retold with warmth and wisdom, includes a retelling of the Nativity story from the Gospels as well as tales and legends associated with Christmas traditions from around the world. Together these stories reflect the message of peace and goodwill at Christmas. Each story is retold in a short but continuous narrative, with quick and quirky illustrations adding to the momentum. The playful element is enhanced by text that 'interacts' with the pictures by means of join-in words so that they are fun to share with children. The large text and carefully managed readability mean that such a book is also great fun for young children who are learning to read. Part of Lion's Two-Minute series which also includes Bible Stories, Parables, Bedtime Stories and Animal Stories.

Two-Minute Tales Golden Books

Two-Minute Tales is a fast-paced collection of flash fiction and short stories. They are organized by length, so whether you have "Just a Minute," "A Minute or Two," or "A Few Minutes More" you'll find a story perfect for you. H. C. Heartland captures emotion and heart in Father of a Bricklayer and Happy Hearts. Ever wonder what happens when the lights go out in the library? Never Checked Out gives you a glimpse. And finally, she explores her heritage in A Thousand Voices Heard. Rex Reeson's debut features his clever writing style. See things from the perspective of a raindrop in Drip. Go on vacation with a group of fiddler crabs in Vahh Cahshun. Enjoy a good old ball game in Knuckleball, fight a cold in On the Ropes, and spend a day down in the trenches with Colt McGuinness. B. B. Smith provides the scenario and calls on your imagination to fill in the blanks in Only One, Pass the Salt and Lost and Found. You'll cheer for the husbandly hero in The List and sneer at the dastardly Malcolm.

'The Author weaves a glorious thread round the world...and across these pages.' Trailfinders, London Unhappy, disillusioned, bankrupt and divorced; Howie Cobb decided to run away. Instead of a spotty hanky on a stick, he took his backpack. He chose the countries he thought most different; to photograph and write about. Shortly after arriving in Asia, he realised that he was also part of a phenomenon - Backpackers. Could he fit in? be accepted - at his age? " I crammed ten years' living into one, and my trip became a love story, comic farce, bawdy romp; an education, a tragedy - a new beginning." Howie Cobb Howie left home in the late '90s. Where is he now? Read how his trip evolved, what became of him, and the effects the trip had on his life today - in this brilliant rewrite of the much loved 'Two Minute Noodle'

The #1 New York Times bestseller. Over 15 million copies sold! Tiny Changes, Remarkable Results No matter your goals, Atomic Habits offers a proven framework for improving—every day. James Clear, one of the world's leading experts on habit formation, reveals practical strategies that will teach you exactly how to form good habits, break bad ones, and master the tiny behaviors that lead to remarkable results. If you're having trouble changing your habits, the problem isn't you. The problem is your system. Bad habits repeat themselves again and again not because you don't want to change, but because you have the wrong system for change. You do not rise to the level of your goals. You fall to the level of your systems. Here, you'll get a proven system that can take you to new heights. Clear is known for his ability to distill complex topics into simple behaviors that can be easily applied to daily life and work. Here, he draws on the most proven ideas from biology, psychology, and neuroscience to create an easy-to-understand guide for making good habits inevitable and bad habits impossible. Along the way, readers will be inspired and entertained with true stories from Olympic gold medalists, award-winning artists, business leaders, life-saving physicians, and star comedians who have used the science of small habits to master their craft and vault to the top of their field. Learn how to: make time for new habits (even when life gets crazy); overcome a lack of motivation and willpower; design your environment to make success easier; get back on track when you fall off course; ...and much more. Atomic Habits will reshape the way you think about progress and success, and give you the tools and strategies you need to transform your habits—whether you are a team looking to win a championship, an organization hoping to redefine an industry, or simply an individual who wishes to quit smoking, lose weight, reduce stress, or achieve any other goal.

"There's a werewolf around. I just know it." "Johnson lost another lamb last night." "They found what was left of it torn to bits down by the railroad track." "And they found tracks of the monster too." "It was horrible." "They were huge." Sheriff Corbin listened as the talk around him started raising the pulses of the crowd. Finally he stepped in. "All right, that's enough," he yelled. "Frankly I don't believe all this talk, but if you folks are going to get all agitated up about it, then we're just going to have to figure out a sensible solution. Otherwise everybody is going to start killing off everybody else and before you know it the whole town will be staying up there on cemetery hill." Find out what happens to this small town in this creepy tale of terror. Ages 9 and up. Educational Versions have exercises designed to meet Common Core standards. The Two-Minute Story for Network Marketing Learning Island

"What does 'allegiance' mean?" the New Teacher asked, hand over her heart. In this classic and chilling tale about an elementary school classroom in post-war occupied America, James Clavell brings to light the vulnerability of children and the power educators have to shape and change young minds. Originally written in the Cold War era, Clavell's extraordinary and enduringly relevant allegory on the impressionability of the human mind is still read in schools around the globe today, and is a call to every person to keep questioning and keep learning.
