MLN pioneered the introduction of contemporary continental criticism into American scholarship. Critical studies in the modern languages--Italian, Hispanic, German, French--and recent work in comparative literature are the basis for articles and notes in MLN. Four single-language issues and one comparative literature issue are published each year.

IL LIBRO DEL MARE Cambridge University Press

The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two-volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works, from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics, themes, genres, schools, historical surveys, and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest, such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading, and, in the case of entries on individuals, a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars.

The Evolution of Noun Classes from Latin to Italian Camden House

New scholarly essays providing a multifaceted approach to the role of Africa in Hemingway's life and work.

Comparative Perspectives on Seafarers, c. 1500-1800 BRILL

The Court and Its Critics focuses on the disillusionment with courtliness, the derision of those who live at court, and the open hostility toward the court, themes common to Renaissance culture.

L'Universo Springer

Urbino, Rome, Florence, Milan, Ferrara... but also Mantua and Imola, Carpi and Saluzzo, Naples and Sicily: a collection of case studies on the Renaissance renewal of Italian court palaces from a comparative perspective.

Court and Its Critics Rizzoli

The short story writers featured in this brief anthology - all established figures on the Italian literary scene - have been specifically chosen as being representative of the various geographical regions in the Italian peninsula, ranging from Ginzburg, Pavese and Soldati (Piedmont), Colombi Guidotti and Guareschi (Emilia Romagna region), Tozzi (Tuscany), D'Annunzio (Abruzzi region) and Moravia (Lazio region) to Pirandello and Verga (Sicily) and Deledda (Sardinia). Twelve of these literary masters' very best novelle - richly diverse both thematically and stylistically - can be read in the original, unabridged Italian with parallel English translations, accompanied by a brief account of the life and literary achievements of each writer, as well as a few notes on the context in which the narrative was written and some relevant features of theme and content. The novelle themselves, originally published in Italy between 1880 (marking the publication of Verga's La lupa) and 1971 (the year of the publication of Soldati's Una donna comprensiva), span almost a whole century. Although presented in chronological order of publication - being self-contained racconti - they can be read in any order. All of them lend themselves to the leitmotif of the collection: that of a woman as the central character (D'Annunzio's Candia, the Princess in Deledda's fairy-tale, Pirandello's Mommìna, gnà Pina in Verga's story, etc.). Two of the writers, Grazia Deledda and Natalia Ginzburg, are themselves women writing about women. The anthology, on the one hand, offers readers the opportunity to savour a few delights of Italian literature and culture, and, on the other, promotes effective language learning through a wide spectrum of language and styles. While remaining faithful to the originals, the translations lay emphasis on readability and fluency, thus making their perusal a pleasurable experience in itself. In addition, the stories in this collection will certainly stimulate further interest in Italian literature.

Taccuino Barbaro Ardent Media

Da sempre l'uomo vive un legame profondo con il mare, un "personaggio" che nei millenni ha assunto molteplici volti. In questa evocativa raccolta, la voce autorevole di Guido Davico Bonino naviga attraverso i simboli e i significati del mare schiusi dai più grandi autori di tutti i tempi: dagli ignoti del Libro dell'Esodo a Omero, da Marco Polo a Dante, da Shakespeare e Montaigne fino a Leopardi, Stevenson, Kipling e Proust, per finire con la Deledda, Marinetti e García Lorca. Tuffandosi in caposalda della letteratura quali il Paradiso perduto, Robinson Crusoe e Il conte di Montecristo, Davico Bonino ci guida in un'incredibile traversata che tocca le corde più intime dell'animo umano, alla scoperta delle varie incarnazioni di Poseidone. Accogliente o minaccioso, romantico o giocoso, mortale o fecondo, il mare in tutte le sue sfumature anima poesie, novelle, resoconti di viaggio e romanzi indimenticabili, spesso incarnando le sfide interiori che gli uomini di ogni tempo si trovano ad affrontare, così come la sete di conoscenza e il bisogno di avventura che anima lo spirito di tanti letterati e delle loro storie immortali.

The Civil History of the Kingdom of Naples Edizioni Mediterranee

In 2018, a conference of the International Association for Neo-Latin Studies took place in Albacete ("Humanity and Nature: Arts and Sciences in Neo-Latin Literature"). This volume publishes the event's proceedings which deal with a broad range of fields, including literature, history, philology.

The Australasian Journal of Dermatology Routledge

Examines the origins of English insurance, focusing on the first English insurance code and its proximity to continental mercantile practice.

A Strong Song Tows Us BRILL

In Dynamics of Morphological Productivity, Francesco Gardani explores the evolution of the productivity of the noun inflectional classes of Latin and Old Italian, providing a wealth of cleverly organized empirical facts, accompanied by brilliant and groundbreaking analyses.

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies University of Toronto Press

Seafarers were the first workers to inhabit a truly international labour market, a sector of industry which, throughout the early modern period, drove European economic and imperial expansion, technological and scientific development, and cultural and material exchanges around the world.

This volume adopts a comparative perspective, presenting current research about maritime labourers across three centuries, in the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic and Indian Oceans, to understand how seafarers contributed to legal and economic transformation within Europe and across the world. Focusing on the three related themes of legal systems, labouring conditions, and imperial power, these essays explore the dynamic and reciprocal relationship between seafarers' individual and collective agency, and the social and economic frameworks which structured their lives.
