This volume brings together a selection of current strategies in the studying of English as a Second Language (ESL) and English as a Foreign Language (EFL) from the perspectives of modern linguistic theory and praxis. Educators from various different countries examine current methods of English language learning in a global environment in which it has become a contemporary lingua franca. Several chapters in the book are taken from the session "ESL Studies" held at the 111th PAMLA (Pacific Ancient and Modern Language Association) conference. This volume discusses issues connected with the study of English as a second language by students from various different countries, such as Australia, the European Union, Italy, the Russian Federation, and the USA, and with several different native languages, such as Arabic, Italian, Russian, and Spanish. The chapters form a rich mosaic of interconnecting themes, highlighting the diversity of present-day processes of teaching ESL throughout the world.

Every Christmas Eve, Santa Claus sneaks into people's houses and leaves gifts under their Christmas trees. Do you know how he is able to do this every Christmas? Even though Santa has lots of magic, one person's magic is not always enough to make all the things happen the right way. Sometimes help is required. It can be magic too, or simple help from normal beings."Return of Santa Claus" is the amazing story of Santa meeting Rudolph - the red nosed reindeer. Due to the poor visibility during the night, Santa Claus had difficulties to share the gifts. Easily, he was forgotten by children and Christmas was no longer celebrated. When Santa thought that there is no way to fix the things, he met a dog who completely changed his existence! The book teaches children some of the important values of life like carrying for the others, the joy of giving, friendship's importance, faith, and uniqueness of each being.

Joy to the World New York : H.W. Wilson Company

[S]urely that need not and ought not to be the whole of Christmas-only a single day or generosity, ransomed from the dull servitude of a selfish year, - only a single night of merry-making, celebrated in the slave-quarters of a selfish race! If every gift is the token of a personal thought, a friendly feeling, an unselfish interest in the joy of others, then the thought, the feeling, the interest, may remain after the gift is made.-from "Christmas-Giving and Christmas-Living"A popular pastor and poet at the turn of the 20th century, Henry Van Dyke sings the praises of acts of kindness and generosity, of good will and good cheer, and of the spirit of Christmas. First published in 1905 this charming volume includes: a dream-story: The Christmas Angel a little essay: Christmas-Giving and Christmas-Living a short Christmas sermon: Keeping Christmas two Christmas prayers: For the Home and For Lonely Folks Also available from Cosimo Classics: Van Dyke's The Spirit of America OF INTEREST TO: lovers of Christmas American author and clergyman HENRY VAN DYKE (1852-1933) was pastor of Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City from 1883 to 1899 and professor of English literature at Princeton University from 1899 to 1923. He wrote numerous books of poetry and devotion, including Little Rivers (1895), The Other Wise Man (1896), and Fisherman's Luck (1899).

Six Carols for Christmas

Sometimes, the simplest joys are the greatest of all, and this happiness that comes but once a year is the topic of interest in Shirley Gentry's "A Christmas in Rhyme." The enchanting poetry in this book will get the cockles of your heart as warm as chestnuts roasting on an open fire. With tales of sleighing, caroling, feasting, and the happiness one feels in the company of friends and family, "A Christmas in Rhyme," truly captures the spirit of the holiday. You can practically hear the sleigh bells and feel the snowflakes with each turn of the page, so read on and immerse yourself in the joy of Christmas with "A Christmas in Rhyme."

My First Christmas Book

Olive Ostrich visits her friends in North Woods. She wants to help them get ready for Christmas. But why does she hide her head in a hole? Will she be brave enough to sled down Scary Hill? And what surprise is hidden in the manger on Christmas Day? This book contains 12 delightful stories that show children the effectiveness of kindness, prayer, respect for those in authority, and keeping Christ in Christmas. The stories were written for children ages 4 to 9 to read or to be read to, but the art and merriment can be enjoyed by people of any age.

The Joy that is Christmas...

Including beloved poetic words from favorite Christmas carols, this book also features classic and familiar verse by Kenneth Grahame, Alfred Lord Tennyson, John Greenleaf Whittier, Eleanor Farjeon, and Josiah Gilbert Holland. Ribbon marker.
