The "European Yearbook" promotes the scientific study of nineteen European supranational organisations and the OECD. The series offers a detailed survey of the history, structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up-to-date overview of the member states of each organisation. This special anniversary volume celebrates 60 years of publication of the Yearbook, and its contents differs from that of the regular volumes therefore. It offers a selection of the most important articles, dealing with European cooperation and integration, to appear in the Yearbook during its 60 years of publication. These are of particular interest not only because they provide a unique historical snapshot of the many successes (and occasional failures) in the field of European integration but also because they discuss the ideals and aims that lay behind these efforts, many of which still resonate today as Europe confronts questions about its political destiny and ideal shape. This volume contains articles in English and French."

Coup de coeur - Sélection les 20 lectures de l'été - Télérama Été 1945 : lorsque le soldat américain d'origine japonaise Ray Takahashi rentre du front, personne n'est là pour l'accueillir en héros sur les terres de son enfance, dans le nord de la Californie. Ses parents, après avoir été expulsés et enfermés au camp de Tule Lake, vivent désormais à Oakland. Mais Ray veut comprendre pourquoi leurs anciens voisins et amis ont coupé les ponts avec eux, et surtout revoir leur fille Helen, sa petite amie. C'est à ce moment-là qu'il disparaît sans laisser de traces. Printemps 1969: de retour du Vietnam, et hanté par les fantômes de la guerre, John Frazier cherche son salut à travers l'écriture d'un roman. En s'emparant accidentellement du destin de Ray, le jeune écrivain ignore tout des douloureux secrets qu'il s'apprête à exhumer. En revenant sur l'histoire méconnue de dizaines de milliers de Nippo-Américains internés dans des camps après l'attaque de Pearl Harbor en 1941, Christian Kiefer tisse un drame familial poignant et lumineux, qui interroge notre rapport intime à la mémoire et au passé. « Fantômes est un roman qui chante, magnifique et nécessaire. » Jesmyn Ward "Un roman bouleversant" Télérama

Jules Verne, a 19th-century French author, is famed for such revolutionary science-fiction novels as "Around the World in Eighty Days" and "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea". He has sometimes been called the "Father of Science Fiction", a title that has also been given to H. G. Wells and Hugo Gernsback. In all, Verne authored more than 60 books (most notably the 54 novels comprising the "Voyages Extraordinaires"), as well as dozens of plays, short stories and librettos. He conjured hundreds of memorable characters and imagined countless innovations years before their time, including the submarine, space travel, terrestrial flight and deep-sea exploration. Verne is generally considered a major literary author in France and most of Europe, where he has had a wide influence on the literary avant-garde and on surrealism. Verne has been the second most-translated author in the world since 1979, ranking between Agatha Christie and William Shakespeare. Some of the works appear only in their original French texts, due to copyright restrictions.

Monthly Bulletin

A collection of United Nations documents associated with the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, these volumes facilitate research into the scope of, meaning of and intent behind the instrument's provisions. It permits an examination of the various drafts of what became the thirty articles of the Declaration, including one of the earliest documents – a compilation of human rights provisions from national constitutions, organised thematically.

 The documents are organised chronologically and thorough thematic indexing facilitates research into the origins of specific rights and norms. It is also annotated in order to provide information relating to names, places, events and concepts that might have been familiar in the late 1940s but are today more obscure.
