The Crazy Horse Electric Game by Chris Crutcher Teaching and Learning Company

The Psalms are the most-read part of the Old Testament, but their importance for ethics has often been overlooked. However, the Psalms offer some of the most potent ethical instruction in the Bible. In this book internationally renowned Old Testament scholar Gordon Wenham examines the source of the Psalms' power, reflects on their main ethical themes, and shows how they function as prayers that change us. Wenham makes an important contribution to biblical scholarship and breaks new ground in discussions of Old Testament ethics, yet he writes accessibly, making this book invaluable for students, scholars, and pastors.

Drawing on extensive professional experience and detailed empirical evidence, this resource sets out an insightful, highly practical approach to teaching science to secondary-aged students with learning difficulties and other special educational or additional support needs (SEND/ASN). The book explores the barriers that the secondary school science curriculum currently presents to those who do not learn in the expected way, before providing a wealth of practical strategies to help teachers, in both specialist and mainstream settings, to make science more accessible. Multiple science topics are covered in depth, including living and non-living matter, the periodic table, electrical energy, the solar system, the environment and more. Each topic is supported by extensive teachers' notes outlining activities that will allow educational practitioners to enact the principles of accessibility in the classroom. With rich field notes and practical takeaways included to accompany key insights, this accessible book will provide science teachers at the secondary school level, as well as support staff and anyone aspiring to teach science to SEN/ASN learners, with the guidance and resources they need to make science education meaningfully inclusive.

To Kill a Poet is a collection of poems, each unique and exquisite in craftsmanship. This sheaf, gives you a glimpse of a multidimensional soul, strong and passionate, seeking beauty and truth, constantly. The poet is a wordsmith who challenges the boundaries of grammar. There is lyricism and sensuality. ?Will Some Body With Me Not Dally? and ?Body Feels Gold? overwhelm you with their power and leave you breathless. Sardonic humour in the pithy lines of the ?Buffalo? poems punch hard at the social malaise. The title poem ?To Kill A Poet? shakes you up. ?What happens when there is no freedom of thought?? Now go on a train ride on ?En route Ahmedabad to Nabipur? and see what the floods do, also to ?A Butterfly Rare?. But there is heaven on Earth too. ?Dulia, Rain Morn?, ?Rain, God in Parts? or ?Rained Night, I Drink.? A feel of Science, Discovery? ?Eyes Open Tortoise? and ?Experimenting Why So?? take you on the quest. There is more in these pages. The quest is never ending! Watch out for new words, coined to suit the need.

When you finally realize that you've been a victim of Family Violence at the hands of a malevolent, calculating abuser, someone you cared for and loved unconditionally, finding the words to understand the methodical gaslighting, deliberate smearing and significant losses you've endured and then to be able to understand, express and heal from your trauma can be especially challenging. Language has the power to hurt, but language also has the power to heal. The acrostic poems in Books 2 and 3 of the TRUE DECEIT FALSE LOVE series of books provide information on and an emotional, experiential response to many terms & phrases on Domestic Violence, Narcissistic Abuse & Parental Alienation. Reading and creating acrostic poems will provide much-needed validation as you reflect on what you've been through while you connect the dots to your own experiences. Writing can help make sense of your emotions and experiences and can be extremely therapeutic on your healing journey. In time, the abuser's mask slips, and with your own research and creative outlet, you will come to understand the truth, find your survivor's voice, reclaim your authenticity and live a blessed and happy life filled with abundance, gratitude, peace and love.

Martha Butler has a passion for inspiring others to realize that obstacles in life can be overcome, and that there is real joy to be found in the process of letting go, moving on, and looking forward. In a collection of thought-provoking poems, Butler reflects on unconditional love, the power of forgiveness, and the bond of trust. Through heartfelt free verse, she explores the affection she feels for those who wander, lost and alone through life, without the love of their family to guide them as well as the freedom that accompanies releasing resentment and forgiving those who have hurt us. While addressing the value of time, healing, and the strength that comes from faith in God, Butler invites others to look deep within and remember the preciousness of life. Poetic Heart-to-Heart Messages shares a collection of profound verse that reminds all of us of the power of forgiveness, the gift of healing, and joys of living in the present.

True Deceit False Love Taylor & Francis

After losing her beloved mother to cancer, Mary Jackson realized she needed to live out her mom's poetic, poignant reminder to "cherish each moment." Those words not only led to the creation of a book title, but also a song tribute, the personal commitment to make each moment last, and a dedication to sharing her journey with others. Within a diverse collection featuring poems, spoken word, inspirations, and reflections, Jackson shares the rhythms of an unshakeable heart, insight that illuminates the soul, encouragement that beckons us to move beyond present circumstances, and comfort that reaches its arms around us and draws us in. Throughout this compilation, others will learn to celebrate each moment, practice gratitude, reflect on love and faith, embrace God's mercy and grace, and keep the faith, despite life's challenges. Cherish Each Moment shares inspirational writings that offer others time to observe and celebrate every moment in life as a gift from God. "... This book of poetry will bless your life, inspire you, and bring you hope ..."

From Delton D'Souza, author of #1 Amazon Bestseller, '69 Moments of Love', comes a collection of acrostic poetry which is set to motivate and inspire you to new heights. In the digital world, 'Error 404' is an error message which indicates that the browser was able to communicate with a given server, but the server could not find what was requested. In the same way, we can understand quotes, but just don't know how to work them out in life. This book is a sincere attempt to send you in the right direction when it comes to using powerful-penned quotes to positively influence your life. That is possible only with poetry because poetry has the power to inspire change like no other art form. Each quote has been passionately broken down into a short freestyle poem that gives you the highlight pushing you in the right direction. It is followed by an acrostic poem, which further gives you details on how to make those impactful changes in life. Last but not the least, a photograph has been added that allows you to be with your thoughts, relive those personal experience and decide on what next - simply making the journey your own!
