Intended as a continuing story, the book "Goodnight Stories of a Little Apple Tree" consists of 27 individual stories, each of which can serve as a single short story after which kids can easily fall asleep.

The stories center around an apple tree that emerges from a carelessly discarded apple, how it grows up and the dangerous situations it has to survive before it can turn into a tree that bears fruit and can withstand even the strongest of storms. Friendship, trust and mutual help are the main themes of the stories in which the little apple tree also discovers that some things are different from what they seem to be at first sight. A book to be read to children, age 4 through 9. German version (<https://www.amazon.de/dp/B0050VQW2O>) has more than 140 customer reviews (as of 01. October 2018) with an average of 4.8 of 5 stars. The "Goodnight Stories of a Little Apple Tree" contains 27 black and white illustrations. Free coloring templates: All illustrations can be downloaded as coloring templates free of charge from the webpage of the publisher Echinomedia under "Kinderbücher." Paul's Little Angel, Paul's Little Devil (currently available only in German): shows children that each problem can be looked at or solved in different ways. ASIN: B00LAFKWWQ A Talk with the Bee Buzzy (currently available only in German): written in form of an interview, the book answers many questions around bees, bee colonies and beekeeping. ASIN: B07FDNDBZN About the author: The author, a physicist and engineer by profession, was born in 1966. He started writing stories in order to entertain his children and to teach them the joy of reading and writing. And it was the children who could decide which characters would appear in the stories. Being adolescents now, the author's children motivated him to publish the Goodnight Stories of a Little Apple Tree and encouraged him to write more books for children. While the children's book "Paul's Little Angel, Paul's Little Devil" is about problems familiar to all parents when bringing up kids, the children's book "A Talk with the Bee Buzzy" is written in the form of an interview, drawing on the author's previous experience as a beekeeper. Contact: ludwighellmann(at)yahoo.de

The ever perceptive meerkat examines his surroundings at the zoo. To the left of him, he finds the burliest bear of them all. To the right of him, the meerkat observes a hilarious monkey gracefully swinging from rope to rope; and straight ahead is by far the most powerful lion of all the land! If only this meerkat could be just like them! But when a sudden dark shadow creepily emerges over the zoo, the meerkat is the first to alert his fellow companions of the impending danger. Almost immediately after, the animals look up to him for his special skill. From afar, the bear admires his speed. The monkey aspires to have his vigilant eye. And as for the lion, he only wishes he could have the meerkat's swift decision-making skills. Stefanie Jeschke's quirky illustrations compliment Werner Holzwarth's important theme of recognizing one's individual talents. Parents and children of all ages will certainly be entertained by this humorous tale and silly meerkat! Tickle My Ears Gecko Press (Tm)

2013 Randolph Caldecott Honor Award In this magical bedtime story, the lyrical narrative echoes a Runaway Bunny - like cadence: "Does everything in the world go to sleep?" the little girl asks. In sincere and imaginative dialogue between a not-at-all sleepy child and understanding parents, the little girl decides "in a cocoon of sheets, a nest of blankets," she is ready to sleep, warm and strong, just like a tiger. The Caldecott Honor artist Pamela Zagarenski's rich, luminous mixed-media paintings effervesce with odd, charming details that nonsleepy children could examine for hours. A rare gem.
