The great Azusa Street revival of the early 1900s began in a humble, run-down mission, with its makeshift "pews" that had been fashioned from planks and empty nail kegs. From this simple setting arose a powerful move of God that swept across the country and around the world.
 Another Wave of Revival by Frank BartlemanBartleman begins Another Wave of Revival by discussing revival and it's depth having direct correlation to repentance and sorrow. Martin Luther said: "The desire of self justification is the cause of all the distresses of the heart." The depth of any revival will be determined exactly by the spirit of repentance that is obtained.
