 If you are interviewing with a company, you are likely qualified for the job. Through the mere action of conducting the interview, the employer essentially implies this. So why is it difficult to secure the job you love? Because there are three reasons you actually get the job none of which are your qualifications and, unfortunately, you can only control one of them. INTERVIEW INTERVENTION creates awareness of these undetected reasons that pose difficulty for the job-seeker and permeate to the interviewer, handicapping the employers ability to secure the best talent. It teaches interview participants to use effective interpersonal communication techniques aimed at overcoming these obstacles. It guides job-seekers through the entire interview process to ensure they get hired. It teaches interviewers to extract the most relevant information to make sound hiring decisions. INTERVIEW INTERVENTION will become your indispensable guide to:

you understand the job you want before not after the fact. ?
 Conduct research to surface critical employer information. ?
 Share compelling stories that include the six key qualities that make them believable and memorable. ? Respond successfully to the fourteen most effective interview questions. ? Sell yourself and gather intelligence through effective question asking. ? Close the interview to ensure the interviewer wants to hire you.

Football and Fascism. The Politics of Popular Culture in Portugal tells the hidden history of football and discusses its political, social and cultural foundations, during the longest running authoritarian regime in Europe. Theoretically grounded on Bourdieu's field theory, and using a multi-scalar methodology, this award-winning research explores the political tensions between the nationalization of sports envisaged by the Portuguese "New State" and the integration of national football in a globalized urban popular culture. Mobilizing unexplored archival sources, and a wide array of primary materials, this groundbreaking work offers new insight on the administrative structures of the corporatist state, the making of an authoritarian cultural program, and the relation between state institutions and civil society. Besides broadening the scope of existing transnational histories of football, this study also puts into question the conventional geographies and political chronologies adopted in sports history. For his outstanding research, Rahul Kumar won the 2015 "Mário Soares Award - EDP Foundation" for best work in Portuguese history by researchers under 35 and received an honourable mention, also in 2015, in the "CES Award for Young Portuguese speaking Social Scientists", attributed by the Centre for Social Studies of Coimbra University.

This book originates from the research project 'New discourses in labour law' held at the European University Institute. A detailed analysis of part-time work regulation is presented for seven European countries, in order to ascertain how internal domestic choices of the legislatures have merged into the 'Open method of co-ordination'. The impact of European employment policies is considered in parallel with the implementation of the Directive on part-time work, thus providing a complete overview of both soft and hard law mechanisms available to national policy-makers. In this 2004 work, the interaction between law and policy emerges as a dynamic and constantly changing process of exchange between national and supranational actors, through the use of concrete examples of lawmaking. Labour law is put forward as being central in the current evolution of European law, and this centrality is presented as a confirmation of innovation and continuity in regulatory techniques.

Komunikasi adalah kunci kehidupan. Bayangkan kalau setiap insan tidak berkomunikasi. Setiap orang pasti akan berkomunikasi dan berinteraksi melalui alat apapun, baik lisan maupun tertulis. Komunikasi sangat penting terutama dalam bisnis, misalnya di tempat kerja, antar kepala dan anak buah, antar sesama karyawan, antar mandor lapangan dan anak buahnya di perusahaan dll. Dalam bisnis hubungan antar perusahaan memerlukan ketrampilan khusus, terutama giving presentation (misalnya dalam memasarkan produk/jasa alias marketing), business correspondence melalui surat resmi atau email, kalimatnya harus baik (sesuai tata bahasa atau grammar), terstruktur selain singkat namun padat. Hasil penelitian dari beberapa lembaga survai terhadap sebagian besar perusahaan multinasional menunjukkan banyak karyawan (sekitar 40% sampai 65%) kurang memiliki ketrampilan business skill ini. Akibatnya pertumbuhannya kurang menggembirakan. Karena itu karyawan perlu mendapat tambahan pengetahuan maupun ketrampilan dalam business communication skill ini. Dalam buku kecil dan sederhana ini disajikan berbagai macam komunikasi dalam bahasa Inggris antara lain verbal skills seperti negotiation, discussion, writing khususnya dalam bidang bisnis, sering disebut Business Communication skills masa kini. Latihan tata bahasa (grammar) serta berbagai kosakata (vocabulary) juga disajikan termasuk kunci jawabannya. Walaupun begitu, ke depan revisi buku ini sangat diperlukan mengingat dinamika dunia di bidang ekonomi, teknologi dan informasi yang terus berkembang dengan cepat dan instan.

This book offers a comparative insight into the labour law systems of Germany and Canada, two countries with different legal traditions and approaches. It examines how in Germany a highly centralised system with clear legal requirements offers employees extensive rights and protections, while Canada has a decentralised, more flexible structure of labour law due to its federal structure. Particular emphasis is placed on the federal principle in Canada, where the provinces and territories set their own labour law standards. This decentralisation leads to considerable differences in regulations on minimum wages, working hours, protection against dismissal and holiday entitlements - depending on the region in question. The book shows the consequences of this diversity and highlights the advantages, such as adaptability to regional needs, but also the challenges associated with this legal fragmentation, such as the difficulty of enforcing the law and the mobility of workers. The detailed comparison shows how strongly employee rights in Germany are protected by statutory regulations and collective co-determination, while in Canada greater flexibility for employers and a stronger role for individual employment contracts dominate. This work is aimed at those affected and anyone wishing to gain a sound understanding of the differences and similarities between these two systems - and how these differences influence the dynamics of labour markets, the relationship between employers and employees and social security in both countries.
