„Die strahlende Frühlingssonne weckt die Marienkäfer Matti und Marie aus ihrem Winterschlaf. Sie stürmen aus den Nussschalen und erleben mit ihren Freunden Lilli und Karl jeden Tag neue fröhliche und spannende Abenteuer. Die ungestüme Marie nimmt es mit fast wilden Kühen auf, während Lilli lieber auf Mattis Rücken springt und sich an ihm festklammert, wenn es zu spannend wird. Und Karl träumt davon, ein großartiger Kapitän zu sein. Die besten Freunde der Welt pfeifen den Osterhasen Lieder in die Löffel, geraten beim ausgelassenen Spiel im Wald ins klebrige Netz der Heidespinne, unterhalten sich mit dem hübschesten Sägefisch im Seerosenteich und werden fast von Finja Frosch zum Mittag verspeist. Und sie haben einen großen Traum. In einer lauen Sommernacht machen sie sich auf den Weg zu den Sternen. Ob sie es wohl schaffen?

Under the Same Sky Lerner + ORM

A troubled college wrestler in North Dakota falls in love and becomes increasingly unhinged during his final season. Stephen Florida follows a college wrestler in his senior season, when every practice, every match, is a step closer to greatness and a step further from sanity. Profane, manic, and tipping into the uncanny, it's a story of loneliness, obsession, and the drive to leave a mark. Stephen is in his final wrestling season at his North Dakota school, and he intends to win the divisional championship in his weight class. He thinks about little else, in fact. It will make up for the failures of the past. It will prove something to the world. It will be the fulfillment of a promise to himself, and a tribute to his late grandmother, who raised him after his parents' fatal car crash. As the competition in Kenosha, Wisconsin, grows ever closer, Stephen will grow ever more consumed—and unsure of what comes next—in this “utterly engrossing” literary debut” (Dan Chaon, author of Ill Will).

Million Dollar Baby meets The Brief Life of Oscar Wao Liborio has to leave Mexico, a land that has taught him little more than a keen instinct for survival. He crosses the Rio Bravo, like so many others, to reach "the promised land." And in a barrio like any other, in some gringo city, this illegal immigrant tells his story. As Liborio narrates his memories we discover a childhood scarred by malnutrition and abandonment, a youth during which he has nothing to lose. In his new home, he finds a job at a bookstore, where of all places he begins to doubt the usefulness of words. He falls in love with a woman so intensely that his fantasies of her verge on obsession. And, finally, he finds himself on a path that just might save him: he becomes a boxer. Liborio's story is constructed in a dazzling language that reflects the particular culture of border towns and expresses both resistance and fascination. This is a migrants' story of deracination, loneliness, fear, and, finally, love - a thoroughly contemporary take on the picaresque novel - told in sparkling, innovative prose.
