Model Rules of Professional Conduct The Stationery Office The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman responsible for investigating complaints regarding whether governmental departments, agencies and some other public bodies in the United Kingdom, and the National Health Service (NHS) in England, have acted properly or fairly, or have provided poor service. This is the first report from the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman of the new 2008-09 session, and sets out 20 cases that the Ombudsman believes illustrate good and poor practice in dealing with complaints from the public, and further demonstrate how things might have been handled differently if the public body concerned had in the mind the Ombudsman's three sets of principles on: good administration; remedy; and complaint handling.

The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts.
