This volume contains key articles and chapters which represent both seminal and innovative scholarship on European theatre performance practice from 1750 to 1900. The selected topics focus on acting and performance, staging (including set design and lighting), and audiences, and are approached with a broad perspective as well as with in-depth, focussed analysis. The volume captures the rich, dynamic and variegated nature of European theatre throughout the late-eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and provides a carefully selected body of significant texts on this important period of theatre history.

Cassell's New French-English, English-French Dictionary Nam H Nguyen

Following the success of "Who's My Bottom?" there are many more adventures on the road for opera singer Christopher Gillett. This is his view from theatrical digs in Montpellier, Paris, Amsterdam, Berlin and Los Angeles, on his way to the bedlam that is commonly known as the world's most famous opera house, La Scala, Milan, where he finds he isn't so much reaching for the stars as "Scraping The Bottom."

The Neighbours New York : Dodd, Mead

It is a dream ...You're going to retire from work and buy a house in the south of France. You search the French countryside Eventually, you find the right house, in the right location, at the right price! You put in an offer.The vendor says yes.The legal process grinds through all the necessary steps.The place is yours!Suddenly, you own the right house, in the right location What you have forgotten is, that with a new house, you get new neighbours! Will they be good neighbours? As Jerry and Fran move into their new house in the village of Las Lilas, they are about to find out!!

Bentley's Miscellany Routledge

The Five Continents of Theatre undertakes the exploration of the material culture of the actor, which involves the actors' pragmatic relations and technical functionality, their behaviour, the norms and conventions that interact with those of the audience and the society in which actors and spectators equally take part.
