Nothing ever happens on its own on this earth. Evil or good. Miracles do not happen just like that, tragedy too. Failures do not just happen, success does not just happen, the anointing does not just come, people don't just backslide. There is always certain operations that are initiated even in ignorance. For example, if I kick a speaker by mistake, the pain will not refuse to come to my leg because it thinks I made a mistake, as far as the system of pain is concerned that action calls for it. So, in ignorance, we have activated a lot of spiritual laws and dis-coordinated them and we have become victims of the interplay of those laws. It's like cutting a naked wire and putting it on your head by mistake when it's raining. Now, whether you're aware or not, the wire will not excuse that mistake. It'll shock you. Read This Book and Be Blessed.

The planting of churches is a phenomenon that is widespread among charismatic ministers. It was a major activity of the early disciples. It is a training manual for any minister who wants to make church planting his vision for life.

In this authoritative piece, Professor Kaluya castigates fellow Africans, especially the leaders and intellectuals of the African continent to understand how significant BACKWARDNESS has remained a major aspect in holding the continent in the dark. He traces the level of African backwardness from an African societal perspective that failed to inherit the fundamental truths, to enhance a creative and effective developmental scope started off by the Stone Age. The level of BACKWARDNESS in Africa is further stagnated by increased dependence of Africans on their former colonial masters and donors who today continue to hold the continent at ransom, through foreign aid offers and collaboration with African leaders to sustain their economies on mostly foreign aid. Above all, the fall of the Berlin wall in German to unite the east and west is the setting of this piece, and offers Africans and their leaders an opportunity to audaciously look forward and revolutionize the continent back into the hands of the African people.

Home cell groups are becoming a necessity in the believer's life, not only for the mega-churches but also for the small corner churches, as well. This book is a how-to resource that details everything you need to know in order to make home cell groups work in your church. The plans developed here are designed to bring intimate fellowship and involvement in the Christian's life, to effectively show Christians how to evangelize their neighborhood and community, and to share their spiritual gifts with one another. Home cell groups, therefore, give church members the opportunity to participate in the ministry of their church. Dr. Cho promises that, "By following the guidelines I have presented here, you can bring the miracles of home cell groups and church growth to your own congregation." So how does a church of more than 800,000 believers grow and work? Small groups, one household at a time. Cho is careful to share both his mistakes as well as his successes. One of the prime ingredients for a successful home group program is evangelism. He insists that the cell groups focus on the neighborhoods and communities to reach the lost. Leadership, training, discipline, recognition, focus, and personal involvement by the senior pastor are other critical elements. There is a careful balance which needs to be struck between control and freedom for each group to strengthen and grow. Great wisdom is shown in relying on the Holy Spirit to strike the right balance. As a senior partner in ministry, The Holy Spirit has grown the body of Christ in a miraculous way. Recorded in this book are lessons for us all, laymen and clergy, large church and small.

Perspectives are very important; and no institution has been as much a victim of negative perspectives as the marriage institution. However, in this re-edited and expanded edition, Mrs. Faith A. Oyedepo, a well known marriage counsellor, comes up with more insight into the marriage institution. Very convincingly, this book corrects all the wrong-headed views on marriage and concludes that: Marriage is Gold. However, like every precious metal, time and other resources must be invested to dig it out. This book will heal your home of heartaches, fears and anxiety which have torn many marriages apart. You have in your hand a God-sent instrument to successfully build your marriage hitherto considered only a necessary evil.

Sexuality rights remain a controversial issue in many parts of Africa; it is not just a controversial issue but also a taboo subject. Many countries in Africa still criminalize homosexuality. Sodomy laws remain part of the criminal laws thereby making it legally possible to persecute sexual minorities. For example Zimbabwe, Kenya, Uganda, Nigeria, Tanzania and Ghana all have laws under which homosexuality can be prosecuted. In South Africa, where the constitution recognizes same-sex relationships, gays and lesbians are often attacked, molested and persecuted for their sexual orientation. Many African societies do not provide enabling environments to discuss sexual orientation issues. Homosexuality has been condemned by many African leaders as Immoral, Un-African and a 'White man's disease'. In Nigeria, lawmakers are resurrecting a version of a widely condemned anti-homosexuality bill. Nigerian Lawmakers in a bid to rally popular support needed a scapegoat and the LGBT community provides an easy target. Poverty, corruption, unemployment, lack of security and the growing menace of Boko Haram are some of the many problems bedeviling Nigeria as a nation. Rather than focus on these urgent problems, Nigerian lawmakers decided once again to come in a 'straight' mass orgy of corruption to bully the gay minority; a cause always guaranteed to provide the otherwise unpopular lawmakers with cheap, majority support. When will they stop discussing who is sleeping with whom and start making laws to move this underdeveloped, oil rich nation forward? In the book FREEDOM TO LOVE FOR ALL: Homosexuality is not Un-African, Yemisi Ilesanmi takes a critical look at Nigeria's 'Jail the Gays' bill. In this interesting collection of her articles on Nigeria's Same Sex Marriage Prohibition bill, she makes a brilliant case for LGBT Rights as Human Rights and effectively debunks the myths surrounding homosexuality in Africa. Yemisi Ilesanmi also raises concern on what she termed 'The deafening silence of Nigerian Human rights activists on the homophobic bill'. She sheds light on homophobia in Nigeria and the forces driving the 'Jail the Gays' bill in Africa. She wrote: "I wonder why it is not considered politically incorrect to ask if Lesbians, Gays, Bisexuals or Transsexuals have equal rights as heterosexuals. If we are agreed that no one should be discriminated against, why are we still debating if Lesbians, Gays, Bisexuals and Transsexuals are entitled to Human Rights? Last time I checked LGBTs are people too! Well, debate is good because in some countries like Nigeria, many are yet to be convinced that Lesbians, Gays, Bisexuals and Transsexuals are actually human beings."

The Significance of Blood This is the common ground for every religion I know including the occultic. They respect blood and they have something to do with blood. Right from the garden of Eden, we begin to see how that when man fell, God Himself stripped a bloody lamb and used it to cover Adam and Eve. Right from the garden of Eden, there was the shedding of blood. Then all through the old covenant, we see the shedding of the blood of bulls. But the question I have is that what is it about blood that makes it effective? Why not the flesh? Why not water? Is it the colour of the blood? Is it anything that is just red in the human body? Many people know that the blood saves, but we do not know what is it in the blood that is so powerful that even Satan and death- the last enemy to be destroyed, can respect it. Read This Book and Understand the great mystery of the blood
