"Unwind " is a little brainchild of the author and nothing of a big creative piece but is tiny emotional titbits that we all have seen or experienced in our lives. The poetries and write-ups are something she felt strongly over years while observing various people and situations and tried to analyse them from her perspective and context. While going through these pages, most of you would strongly connect with the big small feelings about the slices of life. From the innocence of being a kid, to love lost and found , from expressions of a soldier's family to motherhood & it's limitless love for the child, from solitude to unbearable losses ..and many more

This book will introduce the truth of society. The truth is hard to hear. Difficult to erase filthily. We are responsible for spread all these. And for this, we don't feel any shame on ourselves People will not touch this book, who touched offence from their hands, if they promote offence or having an offence in their mind. If you hate girls, so kill them by your hands, but Don't naked in front to girls to girls! Is have the courage to read this book? If you want to accept the truth, then touch this book, otherwise, keep distance, please!

The story of the Arts Faculty is a product of those characters whom we have known for years. When we are children, our enthusiasm knows no bounds. With great conviction, we say that if we become a leader, then we will free people from the problems of scarcity of electricity, water and fight corruption too. We believe we can achieve this. Growing up means a lot of reality checks, and somewhere along the way, we become slaves of this world, where our path and destination are decided by someone else. We delude ourselves to believe we have a free choice even when reality points to the fact that this choice was never ours. If you look into the depths of our childhood, we may

Every weekend is worth celebrating when you can relax over a good brunch. Food Network host, cookbook author, celebrated chef, and mother of three, Gale Gand has long made brunch a part of her life because it's the easiest way to gather around the table with family and friends. Now, in Gale Gand's Brunch! she shares 100 recipes for scrumptious brunch fare, all destined to become household favorites. Traditional breakfast treats become inspired dishes when Gale shares how to effortlessly enliven the basics, like Iced Coffee with Cinnamon-Coffee Ice Cubes, Baked Eggs in Ham Cups, and Almond Ciabatta French Toast. In five mini-classes, she teaches how to master easy but impressive classic egg dishes—omelets, quiches, strata, frittata, and crêpes—with numerous variations on each. Finally, no cookbook by Gale would be complete without recipes for the wonderful baked goods she's famous for, such as Ginger Scones with Peaches and Cream, Moist Orange-Date Muffins, Glazed Crullers, and Quick Pear Streusel Coffee Cake.

diverse interpretations, concepts, and problems in the field of Islamic peacemaking. It addresses both theory and practice by delving into the intellectual heritage of Islam to discuss historical examples of addressing conflict in Islam and exploring the practical challenges of contemporary peacemaking in Arab countries, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan, and Indonesia.

This book seeks to reconstruct the past of undivided Panjab during five medieval centuries. It opens with a narrative of the efforts of Turkish warlords to achieve control in the face of tribal resistance, internal dissensions and external invasions. It examines the linkages of the ruling class with Zamindars and Sufis, paving the way for canal irrigation and agrarian expansion, thus strengthening the roots of the state in the region. While focusing on the post-Timur phase, it tries to make sense of the new ways of acquiring political power. This work uncovers the perpetual attempts of Zamindars to achieve local dominance, particularly in the context of declining presence of the state in the countryside. In this ambitious enterprise, they resorted to the support of their clans, adherence to hallowed customs and recurrent use of violence, all applied through a system of collective and participatory decision-making. The volume traces the growth of Sufi lineages built on training disciples, writing books, composing poetry and claiming miraculous powers. Besides delving into the relations of the Sufis with the state and different sections of the society, it offers an account of the rituals at a prominent shrine. Paying equal attention to the southeastern region, it deals with engagement of the Sabiris, among other exemplars, with the Islamic spirituality. Inclusive in approach and lucid in expression, the work relies on a wide range of evidence from Persian chronicles, Sufi literature and folklore, some of which have been used for the first time. WINNER OF THE HUTCH CROSSWORD

BOOK AWARD 2006 FOR BEST WORK IN ENGLISH FICTION Seven years in the making, Sacred Games is an epic of exceptional richness and power. Vikram Chandra's novel draws the reader deep into the life of Inspector Sartaj Singh, and into the criminal underworld of Ganesh Gaitonde, the most wanted gangster in India. This is a sprawling, magnificent story of friendship and betrayal, of terrible violence, of an astonishing modern city and its dark side. Drawing on the best of Victorian fiction, mystery novels, Bollywood movies and Chandra's years of first-hand research on the streets of Mumbai, Sacred Games reads like a potboiling page-turner but resonates with the intelligence and emotional depth of the best of literature. Note: This book is in the Hindi language and has been made available for the Kindle, Kindle Fire HD, Kindle Paperwhite, iPhone and iPad, and for iOS, Windows Phone and Android devices.
